ANNOTATED SAMPLE FIRST NATION PROPERTY TAXATION LAW (QUEBEC)

The First Nations Fiscal Management Act ("FMA") provides a framework for First Nation real property taxation on reserve. First Nation fiscal powers are set out in Part 1 of the FMA and include, under section 5, the authority to make laws respecting taxation for local purposes of reserve lands and rights in reserve lands.

A First Nation wishing to implement property taxation will require two core laws, the assessment law and taxation law. These two laws work together to establish the property taxation framework. The taxation law creates the framework for the administration of the taxation regime, including setting out the duties of the tax administrator, how taxes are levied, exemptions from taxation, the preparation of the tax roll and tax notices, the imposition of penalties and interest, and the enforcement and collection of taxes.

Laws enacted under the FMA must comply with the legislative framework, which includes all requirements in the FMA, any regulations made under paragraph 36(1)(d) of the FMA and any standards established by the First Nations Tax Commission ("Commission") under section 35 of the FMA. Canada has made the First Nations Taxation Enforcement Regulations ("Enforcement Regulations"), which set out detailed requirements for the enforcement of property taxation laws. The Commission has established Standards for First Nation Property Taxation Laws, 2016 ("Taxation Law Standards"), which provide further requirements for the form and content of taxation laws. The Commission has also established the Standards for the Timing of First Nation Annual Tax Rates and Expenditure Laws, 2017 ("Timing Standards").

The Commission prepares sample laws for use and adaptation by First Nations. The sample First Nation Property Taxation Law ("sample law") complies with the legislative framework and provides a comprehensive taxation law, including enforcement measures, that reflects taxation practices on reserve lands and incorporates components of the Quebec provincial taxation regime where appropriate. It provides a best practices sample for use and adaptation by First Nations in drafting their own FMA taxation laws.

This annotation of the sample law provides explanatory and additional information on key aspects of the sample law, and is intended to assist First Nations in creating their own property taxation laws. This annotated law is not intended to provide legal advice or legal interpretation, and should not be relied upon as such.

Tax Administrator

3.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint a tax administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.

The law must provide for the appointment of a tax administrator, as the tax administrator has specific required duties under Enforcement Regulations and this law. Taxation Law Standards s. 1.

- (2) The tax administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the tax administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.
- (3) The tax administrator may, with the consent of [insert title], assign the performance of any duties of the tax administrator to any officer, employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.

This provision sets out the general responsibilities of the tax administrator as well as other duties specified in this law and the Assessment Law.

PART IV LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all rights in reserve lands.

The law applies to all rights in reserve lands. Taxation Law Standards paragraph 2.1(a).

Tax Liability

- 5.(1) Except as provided in Part V, all rights in reserve lands are subject to taxation under this Law.
- (2) Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law.
- (3) Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this Law.
- (4) Any person who is a holder of taxable property in any taxation year is liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including, for greater certainty, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

All rights in the reserve are liable for property taxation, unless exempted under this law. Taxation Law Standards paragraph 2.1(c).

Taxes owing are a debt to the First Nation, and can be collected in the same manner as other debts in addition to collection under this law.

This provision ensures that taxes are paid even where a taxpayer is appealing an assessment or seeking any other remedy in respect of those taxes.

This provision addresses the situation where there are multiple holders of a right. Each holder is liable for all taxes, and is also liable for past taxes.

Tax Refunds

6.(1) Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the tax administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

This section provides wording for tax refunds. The law must include provisions for refunds of taxes paid where a change in assessment results in a reduction of taxes. Taxation Law Standards paragraph 10.1(a).

- (2) Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the tax administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

  - (b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;
  - (c) interest will not be compounded; and
  - (d) interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

The First Nation can apply refunds to other amounts that the taxpayer owes the First Nation that relate to the taxable property. Taxation Law Standards subsection 10.2.

The law must provide for interest to be paid at a rate of at least prime minus two percent. Taxation Law Standards paragraph 10.1(b).

PART V EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

Exemptions

[Note to First Nation: The First Nation should determine what, if any, exemptions it wishes to provide in its law. Refer to the Taxation Law Standards for further information and limitations on the types of exemptions that may be included. The following are examples of exemptions a First Nation may wish to consider in its law.

- 7.(1) The following rights in reserve lands are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:
  - (a) subject to subsections (2) and (3), a right held or occupied by the First Nation, a First Nation Entity, or a member of the First Nation;
  - (b) a right occupied as a residence by one (1) or more members of the First Nation and related individuals of those members and by no other

This Part includes sample wording for exemptions from taxation that a First Nation may want to include in its law. It is the First Nation's decision whether to provide any exemptions from taxation in its law. All exemptions provided must be set out in the law. Taxation Law Standards subsection 5.1.

Exemptions that may be included are those falling within any of the following categories: exemptions for rights held or occupied by members of the First Nation, by the First Nation, or by a First Nation Entity (as defined in the Standards); rights occupied as a residence by members of the First Nation and related individuals; and exemptions within a class of exemption used by local governments in the Province. Taxation Law Standards subsection 5.2.

persons;

- (d) a right held by an episcopal corporation, a religious institution or a church and principally used for public worship;
- (e) a right held by a public institution for the provision of health services or social services;
- (f) a right held by a cooperative or a non-profit organization that is used primarily as a childcare centre, daycare centre or coordinating office; and
- (g) a right held by a non-profit corporation and used as a private educational institution; and
- (h) a right used as a cemetery, not operated for profit.
- (2) Where a right in reserve lands is held by the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation, as the case may be, and is wholly occupied by a person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation.
  - (a) the exemption in paragraph (1)(a) does not apply to the person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation;
  - (b) that person is responsible for the taxes levied in respect of the right; and
  - (c) the taxes are a liability only on that person.
- (3) Where a right in reserve lands is occupied by the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation and is also occupied by a person who is not the First Nation, a First Nation Entity or a member of the First Nation.
  - (a) the exemption in paragraph (1)(a) does not apply to that person;
  - (b) taxes under this Law must be levied in respect of that person's proportionate occupation of the right; and

This provision ensures that exemptions for rights held by members, the First Nation or First Nation-Entities will not be given where someone other than an exempted person is actually occupying the property.

This provision ensures that where a right is occupied by an exempt person and a person who is not exempt, the person who is not exempt remains taxable for their proportionate occupation of the right.

- (c) the taxes are a liability only on that person.
- (4) An exemption in paragraph (1)(c) to (h) applies only to that portion of the right that is used for the purposes for which the exemption is given.

(5) Where subsection (4) applies to a right that is a portion of a building, the exemption also applies to a proportionate part of the land on which the building stands.

[Note to First Nation: Subsection (4) may be added on its own; however, subsection (5) can only be added if subsection (4) has been added.]]

PART VI GRANTS

[Note to First Nation: The First Nation should consider what, if any, grants it wishes to provide in its law. The qualifying requirements for grants must be set out in this law, with the amounts to be determined each year in an expenditure law. The following are examples of possible grants.

Annual Grants

- 8.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder of taxable property:
  - (a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation; and
  - (b) [set out qualifying criteria for other grant programs].
  - (2) Grants provided under subsection (1)
  - (a) may be given only to a holder of taxable property that is taxable in the current taxation year;
  - (b) must be in an amount equal to or less than the taxes payable on the taxable property in the current taxation year, less any other grants; and

This provision limits an exemption to that portion of the right used for the purposes for which the exemption is given.

This provision provides for an exemption of a portion of a building to apply proportionately to the land.

This Part includes sample wording for grants a First Nation may want to include in its law. The qualifying requirements for any grants must be set out in the law. The amounts of grants to be given in each year are authorized in the annual expenditure law. Taxation Law Standards subsection 6.2 and 6.3.

This section provides sample wording for implementing certain types of grants, including grants to non-profits.

The law may include additional granting programs, provided the qualifying criteria for the granting program are set out in the law.

Once a First Nation decides what grants, if any, it will include in the law, this sample language should be tailored to reflect the First Nation's decisions. Where the law establishes a granting program, the requirements in subsection 8(2) must be included in the law. Taxation Law Standards section 6.

- (c) must be used only for the purposes of paying the taxes owing on the taxable property in the current taxation year.
- (3) Council may provide for a grant to holders of entirely residential rights in reserve lands who would be entitled to a grant under Division I.1 of Chapter XVIII of the Act Respecting Municipal Taxation (Quebec) if the holder's taxable property were located off the reserve.
- (4) A grant under subsection (3) must be in an amount that is not more than the amount to which a person would be entitled under the Act Respecting Municipal Taxation (Quebec) if the holder's taxable property was subject to property taxation by the Province.
- (5) Council will in each taxation year determine all grants that will be given under this Part and will authorize those grants in an expenditure law.

This provision reflects that grants are approved each year by Council in the First Nation's annual expenditure law. Taxation Law Standards paragraph 6.1(d).

PART VII LEVY OF TAX

Tax Levy

- 9.(1) On or before ______ in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class. - (4) Taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.

The law sets out the date by which Council must adopt an annual rates law in each year. The Standards for the Timing of First Nation Annual Tax Rates and Expenditure Laws, 2017 require the date to be no later than November 30 of the taxation year. Timing Standards, section 1 and FMA section 10.

Different tax rates can be established for each of the property classes set out in the First Nation's assessment law.

First Nations in Quebec use a tax rate applied against each one hundred dollars of assessed value.

Taxes are levied for the entire calendar year, beginning January 1, although they are not collected until later in the year.

- (5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable property.
- (6) A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

Tax Payments

[Note to First Nation: In Quebec, a municipality must allow for taxes to be paid by installment where those taxes are greater than three hundred dollars ($300). The First Nation may choose to provide for payment by installments, in which case these tax payment provisions must be altered.]

- 10.(1) Taxes are due and payable on or before ____ of the taxation year in which they are levied. [Note to First Nation: Please insert a fixed date by which taxes are due. There must be at least thirty (30) days between giving the tax notice and the tax due date.]
- (2) Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.
- (3) Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the _____ First Nation.

The minimum tax is set each year in the First Nation's annual rates law. The Commission's Tax Rates Law Standards section 4 and 5 include provisions that apply to setting a minimum tax.

The law must set a tax due date. First Nations are encouraged to establish tax due dates that are consistent with provincial practices.

The law must set out where taxes may be paid, and the forms of payment accepted. Taxation Law Standards subsection 8.1. Sample wording is not included for instalment payments; however, the FNTC can assist with including appropriate wording on request.

The law must set a date by which the tax administrator will create a tax roll in each taxation year. Taxation Law Standards subsection 9.1.

The tax roll must include the listed information.

- (7) The Tax Notice and the Assessment Notice required under the Assessment Law relating to the same right may be mailed together or may be combined into one notice.

Roll and Tax Notices

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

- 13.(1) Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law, or where the assessment roll has come into force under the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must amend the tax roll or create a new tax roll, as necessary, and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment or new tax roll.
- (2) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the tax administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 6.
- (3) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Receipts for Payments

15. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the right in reserve lands for which the taxes are paid.

[Note to First Nation: In Quebec, access to tax payment information is limited to certain professionals, including lawyers. First Nations may wish to modify section 16 to correspond more closely to the process available in the Province.]

The tax administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and note the payment on the tax roll.

Tax Certificate

16.(1) On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (2), the tax administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of right in reserve lands, and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

The tax administrator must issue a tax certificate on request, showing whether taxes have been paid on a property, and the amount of any outstanding taxes.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is _____ dollars ($____) for each tax roll folio searched.

The law must stipulate a fee, if any, to be paid for the issuance of a tax certificate. The fee should reflect an amount that compensates the First Nation's reasonable costs in providing the certificate.

PART X PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

17. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after the date they are due and payable under section 10 or subsection 13(3), a penalty of ____ percent (____ %) [Note to First Nation: The maximum total penalty permitted under the FMA is

The law may impose a penalty where taxes are not paid in full on the due date. The amount of the penalty and when it will be imposed must be specified in the law. The penalty cannot exceed ten percent. Enforcement Regulations subsection 4(3) and Taxation Law Standards subsection 11.1.

ten percent (10%). In Quebec, the maximum penalty is 0.5% for every whole month to a maximum of 5% per year.] of the portion of the current year's taxes that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the current year's taxes.

Interest

18. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after the date they are due and payable under section 10 or subsection 13(3), the unpaid portion accrues interest at ____ percent (_____%) per year until paid or recovered, and accrued interest is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes. [Note to First Nation: The maximum interest under the FMA is fifteen percent (15%) per year.]

The interest rate cannot exceed fifteen percent per year and the rate of interest must be specified in the law. Enforcement Regulations subsection 4(2).

Application of Payments

19. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to unpaid taxes from previous taxation years, with taxes imposed earlier being discharged before taxes imposed later and second, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

  - (b) payments-in-lieu of taxes.
- (3) An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law or in accordance with section 13.1 of the Act.

This provision requires that revenues raised under the law must be placed in the First Nation's local revenue account. The local revenue account is required by the FMA, and must be a separate account with a financial institution. FMA section 13.

This provision recognizes that a First Nation may also expend local revenues as permitted in section 13.1 of the FMA, which enables emergency expenditures and pre-budget expenditures.

Reserve Funds

- 21.(1) Reserve funds established by Council must
- (a) be established in an expenditure law; and
- (b) comply with this section.
- (2) Except as provided in this section, moneys in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the moneys and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.

  - (a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;
  - (b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and
  - (c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.
- (4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has
  - (a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and
  - (b) determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation.

the First Nations Financial Management Board may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.

These provisions set out how a First Nation may establish reserve funds, and how moneys may be transferred into and out of reserve funds. Taxation Law Standards section 7.

A new reserve fund must be established in an expenditure law. The Expenditure Law Standards include provisions respecting the types of reserve funds that may be established, and supporting information that is required at the time a reserve fund is established.

- (5) Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.
- (6) Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the tax administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:

  - (b) securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;
  - (c) securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;

This Part sets out general provisions respecting the collection of unpaid taxes and the enforcement of the law. The Enforcement Regulations set out detailed conditions and procedures for property tax enforcement. The law should include all enforcement mechanisms set out in the Regulations to ensure the First Nation has the option to choose the most effective mechanism for each enforcement situation.

This section provides sample wording respecting tax collection, including allowing recovery by one or more methods set out in the law. Unpaid taxes are a debt and the First Nation can use other methods of recovery in addition to the specific enforcement measures set out in the law.

- (3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

Before a First Nation may commence certain types of enforcement proceedings, a tax arrears certificate must be issued to every person named on the tax roll in respect of a property on which there are unpaid taxes. The tax arrears certificate must include the information set out in Schedule V.

Enforcement Regulations section 5.

Creation of Prior Claim

- (2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all prior claims created under this Law.
- (3) A prior claim listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge or hypothec in respect of the right in reserve lands.
- (4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a prior claim under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

This section provides for the creation, recording and discharging of prior claims.

This section sets out the circumstances under which information or records obtained or created under the law can be disclosed. Taxation Law Standards section 12.

This section enables the tax administrator to disclose information for research and statistical purposes provided the information is not in an identifiable form. Council may disclose this information in an identifiable form provided Council takes steps to protect the confidentiality of the information. Taxation Law Standards section 12.

Validity

- 44.(1) Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by
  - (a) an error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the tax administrator;
  - (b) an error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or

- (2) No suit, defence or exception founded upon the omission of any formality, even imperative, in any act of the Firs Nation, the tax administrator or the assessor, shall prevail, unless the omission has caused actual prejudice.

This section supports the validity of the law where errors or omissions are made. Although it may be helpful to include this type of provision, First Nations should strive for compliance with the law and not rely on this section to ensure the validity of its actions.

Limitation on Proceedings

- 45.(1) No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the date the cause of action first arose.
- (2) If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit prescribed in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily and finally paid.

This section limits a person's ability to challenge a payment made under the taxation law. A person cannot challenge a payment after the expiration of six months from making the payment. This section wouldn't apply where the law specifically provides otherwise, for example where a refund is required.

Notices

- 46.(1) Where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given
  - (a) by mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll:

Interpretation

- 47.(1) The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.
- (2) Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.
- (3) Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.
- (4) This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.
- (5) Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.
- (6) Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

These general rules apply to the interpretation of the law. The federal Interpretation Act also applies when interpreting the law.

Repeal

If the First Nation does not have an existing taxation law or by-law then this section is not required.
The law comes into force on the day after the Commission approval. The First Nation can specify a later date for the law to come into force by modifying this language.
These enactment provisions must be filled in at the time the law is enacted by the Council.

SCHEDULES:

The sample law contains ten schedules. Each Schedule should be completed as much as possible, including by filling in the name of the First Nation and the references to the First Nation's law where indicated.

If a change is made to the substance of the law, any related schedules should be carefully reviewed and changes made to those schedules as necessary to ensure consistency. Conversely, if a substantive change is made to a schedule, the law should be reviewed and changes made as necessary to ensure consistency.
