FOREWORD
FIRST NATIONS GAZETTE
www.fng.ca

The inaugural issue of the First Nations Gazette was published in 1997, under the joint auspices of the Indian Taxation Advisory Board and the Native Law Centre. The vision for the Gazette was to provide official notice of and access to First Nation laws, particularly those dealing with property taxation matters. Over the past number of years, the First Nations Gazette has ensured that all those engaged with reserve lands are aware of the First Nation's governance over those lands.

The First Nations Gazette is published by the First Nations Tax Commission in conjunction with the Native Law Centre. The publication of the First Nations Gazette is governed by an Editorial Board.

In 2014, the First Nations Gazette transitioned to an exclusively electronic publication. While the Gazette is no longer being printed or distributed in hard copy format, it can be accessed, free of charge, on the First Nations Gazette website at fng.ca.

Part II of the digital Gazette, which is a register of First Nation legislation, is consolidated monthly, with the specific content of each volume listed in a hyperlinked table of contents. The First Nation legislation contained in Part II include laws required by federal statute to be published in the First Nations Gazette, and any other laws, by-laws and codes enacted by First Nations and submitted to the Gazette for publication.

The following laws are required by federal statute to be published in the First Nations Gazette:

- Local revenue laws enacted under the First Nations Fiscal Management Act and approved by the First Nations Tax Commission;
- Financial administration laws enacted under the First Nations Fiscal Management Act and approved by the First Nations Financial Management Board;
- Laws enacted under the First Nations Goods and Services Tax Act; and

First Nations may submit other laws, by-laws and codes for publication, such as

- By-laws enacted under sections 81 and 85.1 of the Indian Act;
- By-laws enacted under section 83 of the Indian Act and approved by the Minister of Indigenous and Northern Affairs;
- Land management codes adopted in accordance with the First Nations Land Management Act; and
- Election codes enacted under the First Nations Elections Act.

Format

As of July 2015, the Gazette reproduces all laws, by-laws and codes in the exact form in which they were submitted to the Gazette, including any errors or omissions. This process preserves the authenticity of the legislation in the form submitted to the Gazette. Although legislation is reproduced in its original form using a digital imaging process, the Gazette reserves the right to alter the layout of these documents for compilation and publication purposes. These alterations may include, but are not limited to, altering the page sizing and orientation, and the addition of page numbering, headers and footers. Laws, by-laws, and codes enacted by First Nations are published in the language in which they were approved.

Citation of Laws, By-laws, and Codes

Any law, by-law, or code published in the digital First Nations Gazette may be cited to the annual volume in which it is contained, for example, Kanaka Bar Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2015, F.N. Gaz. 2016.20. The citation, as shown in the example, includes the following elements: Title, Gazette abbreviation, year, volume.

Warranty Disclaimer and Limitation of Liability

The laws, by-laws, and codes enacted by First Nations are reproduced in the First Nations Gazette in the exact form as they were submitted to the Gazette. The Gazette is provided as a public service. All content is provided “as is”, and the publisher expressly disclaims all warranties, representations and conditions of any kind respecting the Gazette content, whether express, implied or statutory, including without limitation respecting the validity, accuracy or reliability of any content in the Gazette. All implied warranties or conditions, including without limitation, implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, title or non-infringement, or arising from a course of dealing, usage, or trade practice, are expressly disclaimed.

Under no circumstances will the publisher be liable to any person or entity for any loss or damage (including, without limitation, loss of profit, loss of contracts and other indirect or consequential loss) arising out of or in connection with that person’s access to, use of, or reliance on the Gazette, whether caused by the negligence of the publisher or otherwise.

PRÉFACE

www.fng.ca

La première édition de la Gazette des premières nations a été publiée en 1997 sous les auspices de la Commission consultative de la fiscalité indienne et du Native Law Centre. La Gazette a été conçue pour donner la notification officielle des textes législatifs des premières nations, en particulier ceux portant sur les questions d'imposition foncière, ainsi que pour assurer l'accès à ces textes. Au cours des dernières années, la Gazette des premières nations a permis d'informer tous les intervenants concernés de l'exercice par des premières nations de leur gouvernance sur les terres de réserve.

À l'heure actuelle, la Gazette des premières nations est publiée par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations en collaboration avec le Native Law Centre. La publication de la Gazette des premières nations relève d'un Comité de rédaction.

En 2014, le passage de la Gazette des premières nations à une publication exclusivement électronique s'est fait avec succès. Bien qu'elle ne soit plus imprimée ou distribuée en format papier, vous pouvez continuer d'y accéder, gratuitement, sur le site Web de la Gazette des premières nations à l'adresse fng.ca.

La partie II de la Gazette numérique, qui consiste en un registre des lois des Premières nations, est consolidée chaque mois, et le contenu particulier de chaque volume est énuméré dans une table des matières hyperliée. Les lois des Premières nations qui se trouvent dans la partie II comprennent les lois qui doivent être publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations en vertu d'une loi fédérale, et tous autres lois, règlements administratifs et codes adoptés par les Premières nations et soumis à la Gazette aux fins de publication.

Les lois ci-dessous doivent être publiées dans la Gazette des premières nations en vertu d'une loi fédérale :

- les lois sur les recettes locales adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations et approuvées par la Commission de la fiscalité des premières nations;
- les lois sur l'administration financière adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la gestion financière des premières nations et approuvées par le Conseil de gestion financière des Premières Nations;
- les lois adoptées sous le régime de la Loi sur la taxe sur les produits et services des premières nations.

Les Premières nations peuvent soumettre d'autres lois, règlements administratifs et codes aux fins de publication, comme les suivants :

- les règlements administratifs adoptés en vertu de l'article 81 ou 85.1 de la Loi sur les Indiens;
- les règlements administratifs adoptés en vertu de l'article 83 de la Loi sur les Indiens et approuvés par la ministre des Affaires autochtones et du Nord;
- les codes de gestion des terres adoptés en vertu de la Loi sur la gestion des terres des premières nations;
- les codes électoraux adoptés en vertu de la Loi sur les élections au sein de premières nations.

Format

En date de juillet 2015, la Gazette reproduit tous les lois, règlements administratifs et codes dans la forme exacte où ils lui sont soumis, y compris toute erreur ou omission. Ce processus permet de préserver l'authenticité des lois dans la forme où elles sont soumises à la Gazette. Bien que les lois soient reproduites dans leur forme originale à l'aide d'un processus d'imagerie numérique, la Gazette se réserve le droit de modifier la présentation de ces documents aux fins de compilation et de publication. Ces modifications peuvent comprendre, sans s'y limiter, la modification de la taille et de l'orientation des pages et l'ajout de

Renvois aux lois, règlements administratifs et codes

Les renvois aux lois, règlements administratifs ou codes publiés dans la Gazette numérique se font par indication du volume annuel où ils sont publiés, par exemple, Kanaka Bar Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2015, F.N. Gaz. 2016.20. La référence contenue dans cet exemple comporte les éléments suivants : Titre, abréviation de la Gazette, année, volume.

Stipulation d'exonération de garanties et limitation de responsabilité

Les lois, les règlements administratifs et les codes adoptés par les Premières nations sont reproduits dans la Gazette des premières nations dans la forme exacte où ils lui ont été soumis. La Gazette est offerte à titre de service public. Tout le contenu est fourni « tel quel », et l'éditeur décline expressément toute responsabilité à l'égard de toute garantie, déclaration ou condition de quelque nature que ce soit se rapportant au contenu de la Gazette, qu'elle soit expresse, tacite ou légale, y compris, sans limitation, concernant la validité, l'exactitude ou la fiabilité de tout contenu de la Gazette. Toutes conditions ou garanties implicites, y compris, sans limitation, les garanties implicites de commercialité, d'adaptation à un usage particulier, de propriété ou de non contrefaçon, ou découlant d'une transaction, d'un emploi ou d'une pratique commerciale, sont expressément rejetées.

En aucun cas, l'éditeur ne pourra être tenu responsable envers une personne ou une entité de pertes ou de dommages (y compris, sans limitation, les pertes de profits, les pertes de contrats ou toutes autres pertes indirectes ou consécutives) découlant de son accès à la Gazette, de son utilisation de celle-ci ou de sa confiance dans celle-ci, ou en rapport avec cet accès, cette utilisation ou cette confiance, que ces pertes ou ces dommages aient été causés par la négligence de l'éditeur ou autrement.

ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) Council must appoint, by Council Resolution, one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in reserve lands.

PART IV

ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in reserve lands that are subject to taxation under the

Taxation Law, all interests for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council, and any other interests which Council directs, regardless of whether or not they are taxable.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in reserve lands for an assessment roll, the valuation date is July 1 of the year before the taxation year for which the assessment applies.

(3) The assessed value of an interest in reserve lands for an assessment roll is to be determined as if on the valuation date

(a) the interest was in the physical condition that it is in on October 31 following the valuation date; and

(b) the permitted use of the interest was the same as on October 31 following the valuation date.

(4) Paragraph (3)(a) does not apply to an interest in reserve lands referred to in paragraphs 17(3)(b) and (d) and the assessed value of an interest referred to in that section for an assessment roll must be determined as if on the valuation date the interest was in the physical condition that it is in on December 31 following the valuation date.

(5) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in reserve lands at their market value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(6) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in reserve lands and must enter the assessed value of the interest in the assessment roll.

(7) In determining assessed value, the assessor may, except where this Law has a different requirement, give consideration to the following:

(a) present use;

(b) location;

(c) original cost;

(d) replacement cost;

(e) revenue or rental value;

(f) selling price of the interest in reserve lands and comparable interests;

(g) economic and functional obsolescence; and

(h) any other circumstances affecting the value of the interest.

(8) Without limiting the application of subsections (5) and (6), an interest in reserve lands used for an industrial or commercial undertaking, a business or a public utility enterprise must be valued as the interest of a going concern.

(9) Where a lease or other instrument granting an interest in reserve lands places a restriction on the use of the interest, other than a right of termination or a restriction on the duration of the interest, the assessor must consider the restriction.

(10) Council hereby establishes those property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes that are set out in Schedule I, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(11) The assessor must

(a) assess interests in reserve lands according to the property classes established under subsection (10); and

(b) use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(12) Where an interest in reserve lands falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the interest attributable to each class and assess the interest according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

(13) Where two (2) or more persons are holders of an interest in reserve lands, the assessor may choose to assess the interest in the name of any of those persons or in the names of two (2) or more of those persons jointly.

(14) If a building or other improvement extends over more than one (1) interest in reserve lands, those interests, if contiguous, may be treated by the assessor as one interest and assessed accordingly.

(15) Where an improvement extends over, under or through land and is owned, occupied, maintained, operated or used by a person other than the holder of the interest in reserve lands, that improvement may be separately assessed to the person owning, occupying, maintaining, operating or using it, even though some other person holds an interest in the reserve lands.

(16) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in reserve lands the assessor must use

- (a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and
- (b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Exemption from Assessment

6. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Law, improvements designed, constructed or installed to provide emergency protection for persons or domestic animals in the event of a disaster or emergency within the meaning of the Emergency Program Act (BC) are exempt from assessment under this Law.

- (5) Where the assessment roll is amended under subsection (1), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in reserve lands affected.

Supplementary Assessment Roll

18.(1) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that any interest in reserve lands

- (a) was liable to assessment for the current taxation year, but has not been assessed on the current assessment roll, or
- (b) has been assessed for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed on the current assessment roll, provided that a supplementary assessment roll under this section must not be prepared after December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies.

(2) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that an interest in reserve lands

- (a) was liable to assessment for a previous taxation year, but has not been assessed on the assessment roll for that taxation year, or
- (b) has been assessed in a previous taxation year for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed, but only if the failure to assess the interest, or the assessment for less than it was liable to be assessed, is attributable to

- (d) a holder's concealment of particulars relating to assessable property,
- (e) a person's failure to respond to a request for information under subsection 7(1), or
- (f) a person's making of an incorrect response to a request for information under subsection 7(1),

(4) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessment rolls.

(5) Where the assessor receives a decision of the Assessment Review Board after March 31 in a taxation year, the assessor must create a supplementary assessment roll reflecting the decision of the Assessment Review Board and this section applies.

(6) Nothing in this section authorizes the assessor to prepare a supplementary assessment roll that would be contrary to an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) A supplementary assessment roll that implements an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction may not be appealed to the Assessment Review Board.

(8) The assessor must, as soon as practicable, after issuing a supplementary assessment roll

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must no later than twenty-one (21) days after the end of the twenty-one (21) day period referenced in paragraph (3)(a), consider the request for reconsideration and advise the person who requested the reconsideration that

(a) the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) the assessor has determined that the assessable property should have been assessed differently, and that the assessor offers to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

(a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;

- (b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and

(3) The Assessment Review Board must consist of at least one (1) member who is a member of Kwantlen First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

respect of the assessable property.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the chair is not required to deliver a Notice of Hearing to a holder of an interest in reserve lands affected by an assessor recommendation under subsection 17(1) where the recommendation

- (a) results in a decrease in the assessed value of the interest;
- (b) does not change the classification of the interest; and
- (c) does not result in the removal of an exemption.

Parties

31. The parties in a hearing, except as provided in subsection 30(3), are

Timing for Hearing

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law,

 - (b) post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.
3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.
4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.
5. The tax administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.
6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, Kwantlen First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.
7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to Kwantlen First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the “redemption period”). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, Kwantlen First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, Kwantlen First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. 9. Council of Kwantlen First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Crown-Indigenous Relations and the Kwantlen First Nation Lands Manager in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.
10. The tax administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.
11. An assignment of the taxable property operates
 - (a) as a transfer to the bidder or Kwantlen First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and
 - (b) to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the taxable property.
12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.
13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to Kwantlen First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. 3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in reserve lands.

PART IV

ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in reserve lands that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in reserve lands for an assessment roll, the valuation date is July 1 of the year before the taxation year for which the assessment applies.

(3) The assessed value of an interest in reserve lands for an assessment roll is to be determined as if on the valuation date

(a) the interest was in the physical condition that it is in on October 31 following the valuation date; and

(b) the permitted use of the interest was the same as on October 31 following the valuation date.

(4) Paragraph (3)(a) does not apply to an interest in reserve lands referred to in paragraphs 17(3)(b) and (d) and the assessed value of an interest referred to in that section for an assessment roll must be determined as if on the valuation date the interest was in the physical condition that it is in on December 31 following the valuation date.

(5) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in reserve lands at their market value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(9) Where a lease or other instrument granting an interest in reserve lands places a restriction on the use of the interest, other than a right of termination or a restriction on the duration of the interest, the assessor must consider the restriction.

(10) Council hereby establishes those property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes that are set out in Schedule I, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.

(11) The assessor must

(a) assess interests in reserve lands according to the property classes established under subsection (10); and

(b) use the provincial classification rules for each property class.

(12) Where an interest in reserve lands falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the interest attributable to each class and assess the interest according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.

(13) Where two (2) or more persons are holders of an interest in reserve lands, the assessor may choose to assess the interest in the name of any of those persons or in the names of two (2) or more of those persons jointly.

(14) If a building or other improvement extends over more than one (1) interest in reserve lands, those interests, if contiguous, may be treated by the assessor as one interest and assessed accordingly.

(15) Where an improvement extends over, under or through land and is owned, occupied, maintained, operated or used by a person other than the holder of the interest in reserve lands, that improvement may be separately assessed to the person owning, occupying, maintaining, operating or using it, even though some other person holds an interest in the reserve lands.

(a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

(b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Inspections

8.(1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) The assessor may enter onto any interest in reserve lands and may examine any property

(3) On certification under this section, the revised assessment roll becomes the assessment roll for the taxation year and it is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10.

Validity of Assessment Roll

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

- (a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any
 - (i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,
 - (ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or
 - (iii) omission to mail any notice required; and
- (b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll or certified revised assessment roll.

(2) In addition to inspection under subsection 13(1), Council may allow the assessment roll to be inspected electronically through an online service, provided that the information available online does not include any names or other identifying information about a holder or other person.

(3) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

- (a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or
- (b) harass an individual.

prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

14.(1) On application by a holder, the assessor may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the assessor's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the assessor omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 13(1) or subsection 13(2) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

15.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

16.(1) The assessor must, on or before December 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll must give written notice to the assessor of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in reserve lands assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in reserve lands are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the interest assessed, without giving the full description of each interest as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) Subject to subsection 13(3) and subsection (7), the assessor must provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee of six dollars ($6), the information contained in the current Assessment Notice sent by the assessor.

(7) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 14(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (6).

PART VII

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Amendments by Assessor

17.(1) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 10, the assessor must notify and recommend correction to the Assessment Review Board of all errors or omissions in the assessment roll, except those errors or omissions corrected under subsection (2) or section 19.

(2) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 10, the assessor may amend an individual entry in the assessment roll to correct an error or omission, with the consent of the

- (a) holder of the interest in reserve lands; and
- (b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the assessor must give notice to the Assessment Review Board and recommend correction of the assessment roll in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) because of a change in a holder that occurs before January 1 in a taxation year that is not reflected in the certified assessment roll and that results in
 - (i) land or improvements, or both, that were not previously subject to taxation becoming subject to taxation, or
 - (ii) land or improvements, or both, that were previously subject to taxation ceasing to be subject to taxation;
- (b) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is moved to a new location or destroyed;
- (c) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is placed on land that has been assessed or the manufactured home is purchased by the holder of land that has been assessed; and
- (d) improvements, other than a manufactured home, that
 - (i) are substantially damaged or destroyed after October 31 and before the following January 1, and
 - (ii) cannot reasonably be repaired or replaced before the following January 1.

(4) Except as provided in section 18, or pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the assessor must not make any amendments to the assessment roll after March 31 of the current taxation year.

(5) Where the assessment roll is amended under subsection (1), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in reserve lands affected.

Supplementary Assessment Roll

18.(1) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that any interest in reserve lands

- (a) was liable to assessment for the current taxation year, but has not been assessed on the current assessment roll, or
- (b) has been assessed for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed on the current assessment roll, provided that a supplementary assessment roll under this section must not be prepared after December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies.

(2) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that an interest in reserve lands

- (a) was liable to assessment for a previous taxation year, but has not been assessed on the assessment roll for that taxation year, or
- (b) has been assessed in a previous taxation year for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed, but only if the failure to assess the interest, or the assessment for less than it was liable to be assessed, is attributable to

- (c) a holder's failure to disclose,
- (d) a holder's concealment of particulars relating to assessable property,
- (e) a person's failure to respond to a request for information under subsection 7(1), or
- (f) a person's making of an incorrect response to a request for information under subsection 7(1),

as required under this Law.

(3) Where, before December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies, the assessor determines that an interest in reserve lands that was exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law has become taxable, the assessor must make an entry on a supplementary assessment roll.

(4) In addition to supplementary assessments under subsections (1), (2) and (3), the assessor may, at any time before December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies, correct errors and omissions in the assessment roll by means of entries in a supplementary assessment roll.

(5) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessment rolls.

(6) Where the assessor receives a decision of the Assessment Review Board after March 31 in a taxation year, the assessor must create a supplementary assessment roll reflecting the decision of the Assessment Review Board and this section applies.

(7) Nothing in this section authorizes the assessor to prepare a supplementary assessment roll that would be contrary to an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) A supplementary assessment roll that implements an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction may not be appealed to the Assessment Review Board.

(9) The assessor must, as soon as practicable, after issuing a supplementary assessment roll

- (b) where the supplementary assessment roll reflects a decision of the Assessment Review Board, deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the chair; and
- (c) mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the interest in reserve lands affected.

(10) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued under this Law, the supplementary assessment roll is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10 in respect of the assessable property affected.

(11) Notwithstanding subsection (10), a supplementary assessment roll issued under subsection (3) is deemed to be effective as of the date the affected property became taxable under the Taxation Law.

Annual Grants

9.(1) Council may provide for a grant to a holder of taxable property

(a) where the holder is a charitable, philanthropic or other not-for-profit corporation, and Council considers that the taxable property is used for a purpose that is directly related to the purposes of the corporation; and

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

(3) The mailing of the Tax Notice by the tax administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

(4) If a number of taxable properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those taxable properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on an interest gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all tax notices issued in respect of the interest to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

(4) Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

Taxation Based on Supplementary Assessment

15.(1) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must make the necessary changes to the tax roll and mail a Tax Notice to every person affected by the supplementary assessment roll.

(2) If a supplementary assessment roll has been prepared under the Assessment Law because, in the current taxation year, an interest in reserve lands that was exempt from taxation has become taxable, the tax levied in respect of the interest shall be prorated so that tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the interest, or part of it, is taxable.

(3) Where subsection (2) applies, taxes levied for part of the taxation year are imposed on the date that the interest in reserve lands has become taxable, notwithstanding subsection 10(4).

(4) Where a Tax Notice is given under this section, subsections 14(3) and (4) apply.

Subdivision

16.(1) If a taxable property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before June 1 in the taxation year, the tax administrator may

(b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment on the tax roll in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a taxable property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the taxable property in the year for which they are apportioned.

(2) The fee for a Tax Certificate is twenty-five dollars ($25) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART X

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

Penalty

20. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion of the current year's taxes that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the current year's taxes.

Interest

21. If all or any portion of taxes remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, the unpaid portion accrues interest at twelve percent (12%) per year until paid or recovered, and accrued interest is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

Application of Payments

22. Payments for taxes must be credited by the tax administrator first, to unpaid taxes from previous taxation years, with taxes imposed earlier being discharged before taxes imposed later and second, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

(3) Council may, by expenditure law,

- (a) transfer moneys in a capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account, provided that all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed;
- (b) transfer moneys in a non-capital purpose reserve fund to another reserve fund or account; and
- (c) borrow moneys from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the moneys are needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

- (a) assumed third-party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and

- (a) in any court of competent jurisdiction,
- (b) in a proceeding before the civil resolution tribunal, and
- (c) by any other method authorized in this Law,

and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the First Nation in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

- (a) are determined in accordance with Schedule III; and
- (b) are payable by the debtor as unpaid taxes.

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(5) Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XIII, XIV and XV, the tax administrator must request and receive authorization from Council by resolution.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in reserve lands.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in reserve lands.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

28.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(2) As a limitation on subsection (1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.

Notice of Seizure and Sale

(4) If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

Registered Security Interests

33. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

Proceeds of Sale

34.(1) The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

Notice to Minister

38. The tax administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Crown-Indigenous Relations in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

(2) On redemption of the taxable property under subsection (1),

(a) if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and

(b) the tax administrator must notify the Minister of Crown-Indigenous Relations in writing of the redemption.

(3) No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (1).

(2) If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the tax administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the tax administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

Resale by First Nation

43.(1) If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 37(3), the tax administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

“taxes” includes

(a) all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under the Taxation Law, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under the Taxation Law, and

(b) for the purposes of collection and enforcement, all taxes imposed, levied, assessed or assessable under any other local revenue law of the First Nation, and all penalties, interest and costs added to taxes under such a law.

(2) For greater certainty, an interest, in relation to reserve lands, includes improvements.

(3) In this Law, references to a Part (e.g. Part I), section (e.g. section 1), subsection (e.g. subsection

2(1)), paragraph (e.g. paragraph 5(3)(a)) or Schedule (e.g. Schedule I) is a reference to the specified Part, section, subsection, paragraph or Schedule of this Law, except where otherwise stated.

PART III

ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in reserve lands.

PART IV

ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor must assess all interests in reserve lands that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law and all interests for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in reserve lands for an assessment roll, the valuation date is July 1 of the year before the taxation year for which the assessment applies.

(3) The assessed value of an interest in reserve lands for an assessment roll is to be determined as if on the valuation date

(a) the interest was in the physical condition that it is in on October 31 following the valuation date; and

(b) the permitted use of the interest was the same as on October 31 following the valuation date.

(4) Paragraph (3)(a) does not apply to an interest in reserve lands referred to in paragraphs 17(3)(b) and (d) and the assessed value of an interest referred to in that section for an assessment roll must be determined as if on the valuation date the interest was in the physical condition that it is in on December 31 following the valuation date.

(5) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in reserve lands at their market value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(6) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in reserve lands and must enter the assessed value of the interest in the assessment roll.

(7) In determining assessed value, the assessor may, except where this Law has a different requirement, give consideration to the following:

(a) present use;

(b) location;

(c) original cost;

(d) replacement cost;

(e) revenue or rental value;

(f) selling price of the interest in reserve lands and comparable interests;

- (g) economic and functional obsolescence; and
- (h) any other circumstances affecting the value of the interest.
- (8) Without limiting the application of subsections (5) and (6), an interest in reserve lands used for an industrial or commercial undertaking, a business or a public utility enterprise must be valued as the interest of a going concern.
- (9) Where a lease or other instrument granting an interest in reserve lands places a restriction on the use of the interest, other than a right of termination or a restriction on the duration of the interest, the assessor must consider the restriction.
- (10) Council hereby establishes those property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes that are set out in Schedule I, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.
- (11) The assessor must
 - (a) assess interests in reserve lands according to the property classes established under subsection (10); and
 - (b) use the provincial classification rules for each property class.
- (12) Where an interest in reserve lands falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the interest attributable to each class and assess the interest according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.
- (13) Where two (2) or more persons are holders of an interest in reserve lands, the assessor may choose to assess the interest in the name of any of those persons or in the names of two (2) or more of those persons jointly.
- (14) If a building or other improvement extends over more than one (1) interest in reserve lands, those interests, if contiguous, may be treated by the assessor as one interest and assessed accordingly.
- (15) Where an improvement extends over, under or through land and is owned, occupied, maintained, operated or used by a person other than the holder of the interest in reserve lands, that improvement may be separately assessed to the person owning, occupying, maintaining, operating or using it, even though some other person holds an interest in the reserve lands.
- (16) Except as otherwise provided in this Law, for the purposes of assessing interests in reserve lands the assessor must use
 - (a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and
 - (b) the assessment rules and practices used by assessors in the Province for conducting assessments off the reserve.

Exemption from Assessment

6. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Law, improvements designed, constructed or installed to provide emergency protection for persons or domestic animals in the event of a disaster or emergency within the meaning of the Emergency Program Act (BC) are exempt from assessment under this Law.

PART V

REQUESTS FOR INFORMATION AND INSPECTIONS

Requests for Information

7.(1) The assessor may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule II, to a holder or a person who has disposed of assessable property, and that person must provide to the assessor, within fourteen (14) days from the date of delivery or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

(2) The assessor may in all cases assess the assessable property based on the information available to him or her and is not bound by the information provided under subsection (1).

Inspections

8.(1) The assessor may, for any purposes related to assessment, enter into or on and inspect land and improvements.

(2) The assessor may enter onto any interest in reserve lands and may examine any property

(a) to determine an assessment of land and improvements, in respect of which the assessor thinks a person may be liable to assessment; or

(b) to confirm an assessment.

(3) The assessor must be given access to, and may examine and take copies of and extracts from, the books, accounts, vouchers, documents and appraisals of the person referred to in paragraph (2)(a) who must, on request, furnish every facility and assistance required for the entry and examination.

PART VI

ASSESSMENT ROLL AND ASSESSMENT NOTICE

Assessment Roll

9.(1) On or before December 31 of each year, the assessor must complete a new assessment roll containing a list of every interest in reserve lands that is liable to assessment under this Law.

(2) The assessment roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information in respect of each interest in reserve lands:

(a) the name and last known address of the holder of the interest;

(b) a short description of the interest;

(c) the classification of the interest;

(d) the assessed value by classification of the interest;

(e) the total assessed value of the interest;

(f) the net assessed value of the interest subject to taxation under the Taxation Law; and

(g) any other information the assessor considers necessary or desirable.

(3) For greater certainty, an assessment roll prepared under the enactment repealed by section 56 is and continues to be an assessment roll under this Law and must be used until such time as the next assessment roll is prepared and certified in accordance with this Law.

Certification by Assessor

10. On completion of an assessment roll and on or before December 31 in that year, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified assessment roll to Council.

Assessor to Prepare and Certify Revised Assessment Roll

11.(1) No later than March 31 after the certification of the assessment roll under section 10, the assessor must

(a) modify the assessment roll to reflect all reconsideration decisions, corrections of errors and omissions, and decisions received by the assessor from the Assessment Review Board;

(b) date and initial amendments made to the assessment roll under this section; and

(c) prepare a revised assessment roll.

(2) On completion of the revised assessment roll, the assessor must

(a) certify in writing in substantially the form set out in Schedule X that the revised assessment roll was completed in accordance with the requirements of this Law; and

(b) deliver a copy of the certified revised assessment roll to Council and to the chair.

(3) On certification under this section, the revised assessment roll becomes the assessment roll for the taxation year and it is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10.

Validity of Assessment Roll

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is

(a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(i) omission, defect or error committed in, or with respect to, the assessment roll,

(ii) defect, error or misstatement in any notice required, or

(iii) omission to mail any notice required; and

(b) for all purposes, the assessment roll of the First Nation until the next certified assessment roll or certified revised assessment roll.

Inspection and Use of Assessment Roll

13.(1) On receipt by Council, the assessment roll is open to inspection in the First Nation office by any person during regular business hours. In addition to inspection under subsection 13(1), Council may allow the assessment roll to be inspected electronically through an online service, provided that the information available online does not include any names or other identifying information about a holder or other person.

(2) A person must not, directly or indirectly, use the assessment roll or information contained in the assessment roll to

(a) obtain names, addresses or telephone numbers for solicitation purposes, whether the solicitations are made by telephone, mail or any other means; or

(b) harass an individual.

(3) The tax administrator may require a person who wishes to inspect the assessment roll to complete a declaration in substantially the form set out in Schedule III

(a) specifying the purpose for which the information is to be used; and

(b) certifying that the information contained in the assessment roll will not be used in a manner prohibited under this section.

Protection of Privacy in Assessment Roll

14.(1) On application by a holder, the assessor may omit or obscure the holder's name, address or other information about the holder that would ordinarily be included in an assessment roll if, in the assessor's opinion, the inclusion of the name, address or other information could reasonably be expected to threaten the safety or mental or physical health of the holder or a member of the holder's household.

(2) Where the assessor omits or obscures information under subsection (1), such information must be obscured from all assessment rolls that are available for public inspection under subsection 13(1) or are otherwise accessible to the public.

Chargeholders

15.(1) Any person holding a charge on assessable property may, at any time, give notice, with full particulars of the nature, extent and duration of the charge, to the assessor and request that his or her name be added to the assessment roll in respect of that assessable property, for the duration of the charge.

(2) On receipt of a notice and request under this section, the assessor must enter the person's name and address on the assessment roll and provide copies of all assessment notices issued in respect of the assessable property.

Assessment Notice

16.(1) The assessor must, on or before December 31 of each year, mail an Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of each assessable property, at the person's address on the assessment roll.

(2) Where requested by the recipient, an Assessment Notice may be e-mailed to a person named on the assessment roll, and the Assessment Notice is deemed to have been delivered on the date that the e-mail is sent by the assessor.

(3) A person whose name appears in the assessment roll must give written notice to the assessor of any change of address.

(4) Any number of interests in reserve lands assessed in the name of the same holder may be included in one Assessment Notice.

(5) If several interests in reserve lands are assessed in the name of the same holder at the same value, the Assessment Notice may clearly identify the interest assessed, without giving the full description of each interest as it appears in the assessment roll.

(6) Subject to subsection 13(2) and subsection (7), the assessor must provide, to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor the fee of six dollars ($6), the information contained in the current Assessment Notice sent by the assessor.

(7) Where information has been omitted or obscured under subsection 14(1), the assessor must omit that information from a notice provided under subsection (6).

PART VII

ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Amendments by Assessor

17.(1) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 10, the assessor must notify and recommend correction to the Assessment Review Board of all errors or omissions in the assessment roll, except those errors or omissions corrected under subsection (2) or section 19.

(2) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 10, the assessor may amend an individual entry in the assessment roll to correct an error or omission, with the consent of the

- (a) holder of the interest in reserve lands; and
- (b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the assessor must give notice to the Assessment Review Board and recommend correction of the assessment roll in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) because of a change in a holder that occurs before January 1 in a taxation year that is not reflected in the certified assessment roll and that results in
 - (i) land or improvements, or both, that were not previously subject to taxation becoming subject to taxation, or

(ii) land or improvements, or both, that were previously subject to taxation ceasing to be subject to taxation;

(b) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is moved to a new location or destroyed;

(c) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is placed on land that has been assessed or the manufactured home is purchased by the holder of land that has been assessed; and

(d) improvements, other than a manufactured home, that

(i) are substantially damaged or destroyed after October 31 and before the following January 1, and

(ii) cannot reasonably be repaired or replaced before the following January 1.

(4) Except as provided in section 18, or pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the assessor must not make any amendments to the assessment roll after March 31 of the current taxation year,

(5) Where the assessment roll is amended under subsection (1), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in reserve lands affected.

Supplementary Assessment Roll

18.(1) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that any interest in reserve lands

(a) was liable to assessment for the current taxation year, but has not been assessed on the current assessment roll, or

(b) has been assessed for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed on the current assessment roll, provided that a supplementary assessment roll under this section must not be prepared after December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies.

(2) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that an interest in reserve lands

(a) was liable to assessment for a previous taxation year, but has not been assessed on the assessment roll for that taxation year, or

(b) has been assessed in a previous taxation year for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed, but only if the failure to assess the interest, or the assessment for less than it was liable to be assessed, is attributable to

(c) a holder's failure to disclose,

(d) a holder's concealment of particulars relating to assessable property,

(e) a person's failure to respond to a request for information under subsection 7(1), or

(f) a person's making of an incorrect response to a request for information under subsection 7(1),

as required under this Law.

(3) In addition to supplementary assessments under subsections (1) and (2), the assessor may, at any time before December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies, correct errors and omissions in the assessment roll by means of entries in a supplementary assessment roll.

(4) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessment rolls.

(5) Where the assessor receives a decision of the Assessment Review Board after March 31 in a taxation year, the assessor must create a supplementary assessment roll reflecting the decision of the Assessment Review Board and this section applies.

(6) Nothing in this section authorizes the assessor to prepare a supplementary assessment roll that would be contrary to an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(7) A supplementary assessment roll that implements an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction may not be appealed to the Assessment Review Board.

(8) The assessor must, as soon as practicable, after issuing a supplementary assessment roll

(a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

(b) where the supplementary assessment roll reflects a decision of the Assessment Review Board, deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the chair; and

(c) mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the interest in reserve lands affected.

(9) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued under this Law, the supplementary assessment roll is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10 in respect of the assessable property affected.

PART VIII

RECONSIDERATION OF ASSESSMENT

Reconsideration by Assessor

19.(1) A person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property may request that the assessor reconsider the assessment of that assessable property.

(2) A request for reconsideration may be made on one or more of the grounds on which an assessment appeal may be made under this Law.

(3) A request for reconsideration of an assessment must

(a) be delivered to the assessor within twenty-one (21) days after the day that the Assessment Notice is mailed or e-mailed to the person named on the assessment roll in respect of an assessable property;

(b) be made in writing and include the information set out in Schedule V; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the request.

(4) The assessor must, no later than twenty-one (21) days after the end of the twenty-one (21) day period referenced in paragraph (3)(a), consider the request for reconsideration and advise the person who requested the reconsideration that

(a) the assessor confirms the assessment; or

(b) the assessor has determined that the assessable property should have been assessed differently, and that the assessor offers to modify the assessment.

(5) Where the person who requested the reconsideration agrees with the modification proposed by the assessor, the assessor must

- (a) amend the assessment roll as necessary to reflect the modified assessment;
 - (b) give notice of the amended assessment to the tax administrator and to all other persons who received the Assessment Notice in respect of the assessable property; and
 - (c) where a Notice of Appeal has been delivered in respect of the assessable property, advise the Assessment Review Board of the modification.
- (6) Where the person who requested the reconsideration accepts an offer to modify an assessment, that person must not appeal the modified assessment and must withdraw any Notice of Appeal filed in respect of the assessable property.

PART IX

ASSESSMENT REVIEW BOARD

Council to Establish Assessment Review Board

20.(1) Council must, by resolution, establish an Assessment Review Board to

- (a) consider and determine all recommendations from the assessor under subsection 17(1); and
- (b) hear and determine assessment appeals under this Law.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must consist of at least one (1) member who is a member of the First Nation but not a member of Council.

(4) Each member of the Assessment Review Board must hold office for a period of three (3) years unless the member resigns or is removed from office in accordance with this Law.

(5) If a member of the Assessment Review Board is absent, disqualified, unable or unwilling to act, Council may appoint another person, who would otherwise be qualified for appointment as a member, to replace the member until the member returns to duty or the member's term expires, whichever comes first.

21.(1) The First Nation must remunerate

- (a) the chair (or acting chair) at the maximum rate established from time to time by the Province for a part-time chair of a provincial administrative tribunal categorized as Group 3,

- (a) has a personal or financial interest in the assessable property that is the subject of an appeal;
- (b) is the Chief of the First Nation or a member of Council; or
- (c) has financial dealings with the First Nation, which might reasonably give rise to a conflict of interest or impair that person's ability to deal fairly and impartially with an appeal, as required under the terms of this Law.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), membership in the First Nation does not in itself constitute a personal or financial interest in assessable property.

Appointment of Chair

23.(1) Council must, by resolution, appoint one of the members of the Assessment Review Board as chair.

(2) The chair must

- (a) supervise and direct the work of the Assessment Review Board;

- (a) deliver a copy of the Notice of Appeal to the chair and to the First Nation; and
- (b) deliver the administration fee collected under paragraph (1)(c) to the First Nation.

Agents and Solicitors

29. Where a complainant is represented in an appeal through a solicitor or agent, all notices and correspondence required to be given to the complainant are properly given if delivered to the solicitor or agent at the address set out in the Notice of Appeal.

Scheduling of Hearing

30.(1) On delivery of a Notice of Appeal to the assessor, or on receipt of a recommendation from the assessor under subsection 17(1), the chair must, in consultation with the assessor, schedule a hearing of the appeal or the assessor recommendation.

(2) The chair must, at least ten (10) days before the hearing, deliver a Notice of Hearing, setting out the date, time and place of the hearing, to the parties and to each person named on the assessment roll in respect of the assessable property.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), the chair is not required to deliver a Notice of Hearing to a holder of an interest in reserve lands affected by an assessor recommendation under subsection 17(1) where the recommendation

- (a) results in a decrease in the assessed value of the interest;
- (b) does not change the classification of the interest; and
- (c) does not result in the removal of an exemption.

Parties

31. The parties in a hearing, except as provided in subsection 30(3), are

- (a) the complainant;
- (b) the holder of the assessable property, if not the complainant;
- (c) the assessor; and
- (d) any person who the Assessment Review Board determines may be affected by the appeal or assessor recommendation, upon request by that person.

Delivery of Documentation

32.(1) The chair must, without delay, deliver a copy of any document submitted by a party in relation to an appeal to all other parties.

- (2) The chair may, in respect of an appeal,
 - (a) require the assessor to provide any relevant document or record obtained or created in respect of an assessment that is in the custody or control of the assessor, subject to privilege;
 - (b) require a party to provide relevant documents and records in advance of a hearing.

Timing for Hearing

33. Subject to section 46, the Assessment Review Board must commence a hearing within forty-five (45) days after delivery of the Notice of Appeal to the assessor or receipt of an assessor recommendation under subsection 17(1), unless all parties consent to a delay.

Daily Schedule

34.(1) The chair must

- (a) create a daily schedule for the hearings of the Assessment Review Board; and
- (b) post the daily schedule at the place where the Assessment Review Board is to meet.

(2) The Assessment Review Board must proceed to deal with appeals and assessor recommendations in accordance with the daily schedule, unless the Assessment Review Board considers a change in the schedule necessary and desirable in the circumstances.

Conduct of Hearing

35.(1) The Assessment Review Board must give all parties a reasonable opportunity to be heard at a hearing.

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(9) The Assessment Review Board may conduct its proceedings by any combination of written, electronic and oral hearings.

(10) An oral hearing must be open to the public unless the Assessment Review Board, on application by a party, determines that the hearing should be held in camera.

Maintaining Order at Hearings

36.(1) The Assessment Review Board may, at an oral hearing, make orders or give directions that it considers necessary to maintain order at the hearing.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may, by order, impose restrictions on a person's continued participation in or attendance at a hearing and may exclude a person from further participation in or attendance at a hearing until the Assessment Review Board orders otherwise.

Summary Dismissal

37.(1) At any time after a Notice of Appeal is received by the Assessment Review Board, the Assessment Review Board may dismiss all or part of the appeal where it determines that any of the following apply:

- (a) the appeal is not within the jurisdiction of the Assessment Review Board;
- (b) the appeal was not filed within the applicable time limit; or
- (c) the complainant failed to diligently pursue the appeal or failed to comply with an order of the Assessment Review Board.

(2) Before dismissing all or part of an appeal under subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board must give the complainant an opportunity to make submissions to the Assessment Review Board.

(3) The Assessment Review Board must give written reasons for any dismissal made under subsection (1) to all parties.

Quorum

38.(1) A majority of the members of the Assessment Review Board constitutes a quorum, provided that there must not be less than three (3) members present at any time.

(2) Where a quorum of the members of an Assessment Review Board is not present at the time at which a hearing is to be held, the hearing must be adjourned to the next day that is not a holiday, and so on from day to day until there is a quorum.

Decisions

39. A decision of the majority of the members is a decision of the Assessment Review Board and, in the case of a tie, the decision of the chair governs.

Combining Hearings

40. The Assessment Review Board may conduct a single hearing of two (2) or more appeals or assessor recommendations related to the same assessment if the matters in each hearing are addressing the same assessable property or substantially the same issues.

Power to Determine Procedures

41.(1) Subject to this Law, the Assessment Review Board has the power to control its own processes and may make rules respecting practice and procedure to facilitate the just and timely resolution of the matters before it.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Assessment Review Board may make rules respecting the holding of pre-hearing conferences and requiring the parties to attend a pre-hearing conference.

Orders to Attend or Produce Documents

42.(1) At any time before or during a hearing, but before its decision, the Assessment Review Board may make an order requiring a person to

- (a) attend a hearing to give evidence, or
- (b) produce a document or other thing in the person's possession or control as specified by the Assessment Review Board, by issuing an Order to Attend Hearing/Produce Documents and serving it on the person at least two (2) days before the person's attendance or the requested document is required at the hearing, as the case may be.

(2) Where an order is made under paragraph (1)(a), the Assessment Review Board must pay to the person a twenty dollar ($20) witness fee plus reasonable travel expenses to attend and give evidence before the Assessment Review Board.

(6) The administrator must make available to the public, upon request, the considerations, information and calculations used to determine the development cost charges imposed under this Law, except that information respecting the contemplated acquisition costs and locations of specific properties need not be provided.

PART IV

IMPOSITION, CALCULATION AND PAYMENT OF DEVELOPMENT COST CHARGES

Establishment and Imposition of Development Cost Charges

4. (1) The following development cost charge classes are established:

(a) in Zone A:

(i) transportation;

(b) in Zone B:

(i) sewer,

(ii) water, and

(iii) transportation.

(2) Development cost charges are hereby imposed on, and must be paid by, every person who obtains

(a) a development approval; or

(b) a subdivision approval.

Calculation of Development Cost Charges

5.(1) Where a person, in compliance with all applicable laws, bylaws and policies, applies for

(a) a development approval, or

(b) a subdivision approval,

in Zone A or Zone B of Penticton Indian Reserve No. 1, the administrator must calculate the amount of development cost charges payable in relation to the application in accordance with this section and using the applicable charges and formula set out for Zone A or for Zone B, as applicable, in Schedule I.

(2) Where a type of development is not identified in Schedule I, the amount of development cost charges to be paid to the Band must be equal to the development cost charges that would have been payable for the most comparable type of development, as determined by the administrator.

(3) Where a development contains two (2) or more uses, the development cost charges must be calculated separately for each use within the development, and the total amount payable must be the sum of the development cost charges levied for all uses in the development.

(4) Where required by the administrator, the developer must provide to the administrator the calculation of the development cost charges payable under this Law, as determined and certified by a professional engineer who is registered and licensed under applicable provincial legislation.

Payment of Development Cost Charges

6.(1) Development cost charges levied under this Law must be paid in full to the Band at the time of, and as a condition of,

(a) development approval; or

(b) subdivision approval.

(2) In the case of a phased development, development cost charges are payable only in respect of the phase respecting which a subdivision approval or development approval is given.

Application of Development Cost Charges

7.(1) Despite subsections 4(2) and 6(1), no development cost charges are required to be paid where

- (a) the development does not impose any new capital cost burdens on the Band; or
- (b) development cost charges have previously been paid for the same development unless, as a result of a further development, new capital cost burdens will be imposed on the Band.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a development imposes new capital cost burdens where it creates any new or additional demand on, or usage of, an existing or planned service or facility that is in a development cost charge class.

Exemptions from Development Cost Charges

8. Despite paragraph 4(2)(a), no development cost charges are required to be paid where a development approval authorizes the construction, alteration or extension of a building that will be owned and occupied by a member of the Band as a single-family residential dwelling unit, provided that in such cases the Band must pay, using moneys that are not local revenues, into the appropriate development cost charge reserve funds an amount equivalent to the development cost charges that would have been payable had the exemption not applied.

Developer Contributions under Written Agreement

9.(1) If a developer has, pursuant to a written agreement with the Band, provided or paid the cost of providing a specific service outside the boundaries of the parcel being developed that is included in the calculations used to determine the amount of development cost charges, the cost of the service must be deducted from the development cost charges otherwise owing for that development cost charge class.

(2) Where a service is included in the calculations used to determine the amount of a development cost charge and a developer has, pursuant to a written agreement with the Band,

- (a) provided that service outside the boundaries of the parcel being developed, and
- (b) provided the service to a standard that exceeds the standard required by the Band, the Band must offer a rebate of development cost charges for the incremental portion of costs beyond the standard required by the Band for that development cost charge class.

PART V

10.(1) The Band must establish by an expenditure law a separate development cost charge reserve fund for each development cost charge class.

(2) All development cost charges paid to the Band under this Law, including for greater certainty amounts paid under section 6, must be deposited in the appropriate development cost charge reserve fund established for each development cost charge class.

(3) Money in development cost charge reserve funds, together with interest on it, must be used only

- (a) to pay the capital costs of providing, constructing, altering, improving, replacing or expanding sewer, water, and transportation facilities that relate directly or indirectly to the development in respect of which the development cost charge was collected;
- (b) to pay the principal of and interest on a debt incurred by a Band as a result of an expenditure under paragraphs (a);

- (c) to pay a person subject to a development cost charge for some or all of the capital costs the person incurred in completing a project described in paragraph (a) if
 - (i) the project was completed under a written agreement between the person and the Band, and
 - (ii) the project is included in the calculations used to determine the amount of that development cost charge.
- (4) All payments made under subsection (3) must be authorized by an expenditure law.

- (2) A transfer under subsection (1) must be authorized by an expenditure law.

Borrowing from a Development Cost Charge Reserve Fund

12.(1) The Band may borrow from a development cost charge reserve fund for the purposes of a capital purpose reserve fund where

- (a) the moneys in the originating reserve fund are not currently required for its purpose; and
- (b) the Band has a reserve fund established for a capital purpose for which it requires the moneys.
- (2) Where moneys are borrowed under subsection (1), the Band must repay to the originating reserve fund, no later than the time when the money is needed for the purposes of that reserve fund,
 - (a) the amount borrowed; and
 - (b) an amount equivalent to the interest that would have been earned on the amount had it remained in the originating reserve fund.
- (3) Interest paid under paragraph (2)(b) must be at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the Band.
- (4) In the event the Board assumes third-party management of the Band's local revenue account in accordance with the Act, the Board may, acting in the place of the Council, borrow moneys from a development cost charge reserve fund where it determines that such borrowing is necessary to meet the financial obligations of the Band.
- (5) Borrowing from a reserve fund under this section must be authorized by an expenditure law.

PART VI

REFUNDS OF DEVELOPMENT COST CHARGES

Refund of Development Cost Charges

13.(1) A developer may apply to the administrator for a refund of development cost charges previously paid by the developer in whole or in part when the subdivision or development approval is cancelled, provided that an application for a refund is made within six (6) months of the cancellation, as the case may be, and a new or replacement subdivision or development approval application has not been received or approved in respect of the parcel.

(2) Upon application under subsection (1), the administrator must determine whether the applicant qualifies for a refund of development cost charges and, if so, refund the development cost charges.

PART VII

COMPLAINTS TO ADMINISTRATOR

Complaints to Administrator

14.(1) A developer may, within seven (7) days of receiving from the administrator the calculation of development cost charges under subsection 5(1), make a complaint to the administrator in writing.

(2) A complaint may only be made respecting one or more of the following:

- (a) there is an error or omission respecting the calculation of the development cost charges; and
- (b) an exemption has been improperly applied.

(3) A complaint must be made in the form set out in Schedule II and delivered to the administrator and must include any reasons in support of the complaint.

(4) Within twenty-one (21) days after receipt of a complaint, the administrator must review the matter and attempt to resolve the complaint.

(5) If the administrator concludes that the development cost charges were improperly calculated or levied and the developer is owed a refund, the administrator must correct the error and refund to the developer the excess development cost charges paid.

(6) If the administrator concludes that the development cost charges were improperly calculated or levied and that further amounts are owed by the developer, the developer must pay the balance of the development cost charges owing within ten (10) days of notice from the administrator.

(7) The administrator must provide a report to Council in respect of each complaint received under this section, which report must include the nature of the complaint and the resolution of the complaint, if any.

(8) Where a developer makes a complaint under this Law, the developer must pay when due the full amount of the development cost charges assessed and such payment will not prejudice the developer's rights in respect of the complaint.

ADMINISTRATION

Assessor

3.(1) Council must appoint one or more assessors to undertake assessments of assessable property in accordance with this Law and such other duties as set out in this Law or as directed by Council.

(2) An assessor appointed by Council must be qualified to conduct assessments of real property in the Province.

Application of Law

4. This Law applies to all interests in reserve lands.

PART IV
ASSESSED VALUE

Assessment and Valuation

5.(1) The assessor must assess

- (a) all interests in reserve lands that are subject to taxation under the Taxation Law;
- (b) all interests for which payments-in-lieu may be accepted by Council; and
- (c) non-taxable interests, when requested to do so by Council.

(2) For the purpose of determining the assessed value of an interest in reserve lands for an assessment roll, the valuation date is July 1 of the year before the taxation year for which the assessment applies.

(3) The assessed value of an interest in reserve lands for an assessment roll is to be determined as if on the valuation date

(a) the interest was in the physical condition that it is in on October 31 following the valuation date; and

(b) the permitted use of the interest was the same as on October 31 following the valuation date.

(4) Paragraph (3)(a) does not apply to an interest in reserve lands referred to in paragraphs 17(3)(b) and (d) and the assessed value of an interest referred to in that section for an assessment roll must be determined as if on the valuation date the interest was in the physical condition that it is in on December 31 following the valuation date.

(5) Except where otherwise provided, the assessor must assess interests in reserve lands at their market value as if held in fee simple off the reserve.

(6) The assessor must determine the assessed value of an interest in reserve lands and must enter the assessed value of the interest in the assessment roll.

(7) In determining assessed value, the assessor may, except where this Law has a different requirement, give consideration to the following:

Penticton Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2021

- (a) present use;
 - (b) location;
 - (c) original cost;
 - (d) replacement cost;
 - (e) revenue or rental value;
 - (f) selling price of the interest in reserve lands and comparable interests;
 - (g) economic and functional obsolescence; and
 - (h) any other circumstances affecting the value of the interest.
- (8) Without limiting the application of subsections (5) and (6), an interest in reserve lands used for an industrial or commercial undertaking, a business or a public utility enterprise must be valued as the interest of a going concern.
- (9) Where the Penticton Indian Band or the Minister, in a lease or other instrument granting an interest in reserve lands, places a restriction on the use of the interest, other than a right of termination or a restriction on the duration of the interest, the assessor must consider the restriction.
- (10) Council hereby establishes those property classes established by the Province for provincial property assessment purposes that are set out in Schedule I, for the purposes of assessment under this Law and imposing taxes under the Taxation Law.
- (11) The assessor must
- (a) assess interests in reserve lands according to the property classes established under subsection (10); and
 - (b) use the provincial classification rules for each property class.
- (12) Where an interest in reserve lands falls into two (2) or more property classes, the assessor must determine the share of the assessed value of the interest attributable to each class and assess the interest according to the proportion each share constitutes of the total assessed value.
- (13) Where two (2) or more persons are holders of an interest in reserve lands, the assessor may choose to assess the interest in the name of any of those persons or in the names of two (2) or more of those persons jointly.
- (14) If a building or other improvement extends over more than one (1) interest in reserve lands, those interests, if contiguous, may be treated by the assessor as one interest and assessed accordingly.
- (15) Where an improvement extends over, under or through land and is owned, occupied, maintained, operated or used by a person other than the holder of the interest in reserve lands, that improvement may be separately assessed to the person owning, occupying, maintaining, operating or using it, even though some other person holds an interest in the reserve lands.

- (a) the valuation methods, rates, rules and formulas established under provincial assessment legislation existing at the time of assessment; and

12. An assessment roll is effective on certification and unless amended in accordance with this Law, by a decision of the Assessment Review Board or by an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, is
- (a) valid and binding on all parties concerned, despite any

(6) Subject to subsection 13(3) and subsection (7), the assessor must provide the information contained in the current Assessment Notice to any person who requests it and pays to the assessor a fee in the amount prescribed from time to time under the Assessment Act, RSBC 1996, c 20 for obtaining an assessment notice.

Penticton Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2021

PART VII
ERRORS AND OMISSIONS IN ASSESSMENT ROLL

Amendments by Assessor

17.(1) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 10, the assessor must notify and recommend correction to the Assessment Review Board of all errors or omissions in the assessment roll, except those errors or omissions corrected under subsection (2) or section 19.

(2) Before March 16 in each year after the certification of an assessment roll under section 10, the assessor may amend an individual entry in the assessment roll to correct an error or omission, with the consent of the

- (a) holder of the interest in reserve lands; and
- (b) the complainant, if the complainant is not the holder.

(3) Without limiting subsection (1), the assessor must give notice to the Assessment Review Board and recommend correction of the assessment roll in any of the following circumstances:

(a) because of a change in a holder that occurs before January 1 in a taxation year that is not reflected in the certified assessment roll and that results in

- (i) land or improvements, or both, that were not previously subject to taxation becoming subject to taxation, or
- (ii) land or improvements, or both, that were previously subject to taxation ceasing to be subject to taxation;

(b) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is moved to a new location or destroyed;

(c) after October 31 and before the following January 1, a manufactured home is placed on land that has been assessed or the manufactured home is purchased by the holder of land that has been assessed; and

(d) improvements, other than a manufactured home, that

- (i) are substantially damaged or destroyed after October 31 and before the following January 1, and
- (ii) cannot reasonably be repaired or replaced before the following January 1.

(4) Except as provided in section 18, or pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the assessor must not make any amendments to the assessment roll after March 31 of the current taxation year.

(5) Where the assessment roll is amended under subsection (1), the assessor must mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named in the assessment roll in respect of the interest in reserve lands affected.

Supplementary Assessment Roll

18.(1) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that any interest in reserve lands

(a) was liable to assessment for the current taxation year, but has not been assessed on the current assessment roll, or

(b) has been assessed for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed on the current assessment roll, provided that a supplementary assessment roll under this section must not be prepared after December 31

of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies.

(2) If, after the certification of the revised assessment roll or where there is no revised assessment roll, after March 31, the assessor finds that an interest in reserve lands

- (a) was liable to assessment for a previous taxation year, but has not been assessed on the assessment roll for that taxation year, or
- (b) has been assessed in a previous taxation year for less than the amount for which it was liable to assessment,

the assessor must assess the interest on a supplementary assessment roll, or further supplementary assessment roll, in the same manner that it should have been assessed, but only if the failure to assess the interest, or the assessment for less than it was liable to be assessed, is attributable to

- (c) a holder's failure to disclose,
- (d) a holder's concealment of particulars relating to assessable property,
- (e) a person's failure to respond to a request for information under subsection 7(1), or
- (f) a person's making of an incorrect response to a request for information under subsection 7(1),

as required under this Law.

(3) Where, at any time before December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies, the assessor determines that property that was exempt from taxation under the Taxation Law has become taxable, the assessor must make entry on a supplementary assessment roll.

(4) In addition to supplementary assessments under subsections (1), (2) and (3), the assessor may, at any time before December 31 of the taxation year in which the assessment roll certified under section 10 applies, correct errors and omissions in the assessment roll by means of entries in a supplementary assessment roll.

(5) The duties imposed on the assessor with respect to the assessment roll and the provisions of this Law relating to assessment rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary assessment rolls.

(6) Where the assessor receives a decision of the Assessment Review Board after March 31 in a taxation year, the assessor must create a supplementary assessment roll reflecting the decision of the Assessment Review Board and this section applies.

(7) Nothing in this section authorizes the assessor to prepare a supplementary assessment roll that would be contrary to an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) A supplementary assessment roll that implements an amendment ordered or directed by the Assessment Review Board or by a court of competent jurisdiction may not be appealed to the Assessment Review Board.

(9) The assessor must, as soon as practicable, after issuing a supplementary assessment roll

- (a) deliver a certified copy of the supplementary assessment roll to the Council;

- (c) mail an amended Assessment Notice to every person named on the assessment roll in respect of the interest in reserve lands affected.

(10) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued under this Law, the supplementary assessment roll is deemed to be effective as of the date the assessment roll was certified under section 10 in respect of the assessable property affected.

Penticton Indian Band Property Assessment Law, 2021

(11) Despite subsection (10), a supplementary assessment roll issued under subsection (3) is deemed to be effective as of the date the affected property became taxable under the Taxation Law.

(4) In any year where the Assessment Review Board will conduct more than one (1) hearing, the chair must, where possible, schedule the hearings on the same day or on consecutive days.

Timing for Hearing

(2) A party may be represented by counsel or an agent and may make submissions as to facts, law and jurisdiction.

(3) The Assessment Review Board may conduct a hearing whether the complainant is present or not, provided the complainant was given notice of the hearing in accordance with this Law.

(4) The burden of proof in an appeal is on the person bringing the appeal.

(5) In an oral hearing, a party may call and examine witnesses, present evidence and submissions and conduct cross-examination of witnesses as reasonably required by the Assessment Review Board for a full and fair disclosure of all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(6) The Assessment Review Board may reasonably limit further examination or cross-examination of a witness if it is satisfied that the examination or cross-examination has been sufficient to disclose fully and fairly all matters relevant to the issues in the appeal.

(7) The Assessment Review Board may question any witness who gives oral evidence at a hearing.

(8) The Assessment Review Board may receive and accept information that it considers relevant, necessary and appropriate, whether or not the information would be admissible in a court of law.

(3) The tax administrator may use the certified assessment roll as the tax roll by adding the following information to the assessment roll:

- (a) the amount of taxes levied on the interest in the current taxation year under this Law; and

Annual Tax Notices

14.(1) On or before June 1 in each taxation year, the tax administrator must mail a Tax Notice to

(4) If a number of taxable properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those taxable properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

(5) Where the holder of a charge on an interest gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the tax administrator must mail a copy of all tax notices issued in respect of the interest to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notices

Taxation Based on Supplementary Assessment

16.(1) Where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the tax administrator must make the necessary changes to the tax roll and mail a Tax Notice to every person affected by the supplementary assessment roll.

(2) If a supplementary assessment roll has been prepared under the Assessment Law because, in the current taxation year, property that was exempt from taxation has become taxable, the tax levied in respect of the property must be prorated so that tax is payable only for the part of the year in which the property, or part of it, is taxable.

(3) Where subsection (2) applies, taxes levied for part of a taxation year are imposed on the date that the property has become taxable, despite subsection 11(4).

(4) Where a Tax Notice is given under this section, subsections 15(3) and (4) apply.

Subdivision

17.(1) If a taxable property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, before June 1 in the taxation year, the tax administrator may

- (b) on making an apportionment under paragraph (a), record the apportionment on the tax roll in the manner that the tax administrator considers necessary.

(2) Taxes apportioned to a taxable property under subsection (1) are the taxes payable in respect of the taxable property in the year for which they are apportioned.

PART X

Penalty

21. If all or any portion of the taxes remains unpaid after July 2 of the year in which they are levied, a penalty of ten percent (10%) of the portion of the current year's taxes that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the current year's taxes.

Interest

(4) As an exception to paragraph (3)(c), where the First Nations Financial Management Board has

(a) in any court of competent jurisdiction,

(b) in a proceeding before the civil resolution tribunal, and

(c) by any other method authorized in this Law,

and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.

(3) Costs incurred by the Penticton Indian Band in the collection and enforcement of unpaid taxes

Penticton Indian Band Property Taxation Law, 2021

(4) Where the tax administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove their personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove their improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.

(2) The tax administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.

(3) A lien listed under subsection (2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, lien or security interest in respect of the interest in reserve lands.

(4) The tax administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (1) where the tax administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.

(5) On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the tax administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.

(6) Discharge of a lien by the tax administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in reserve lands.

(7) A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

29.(1) This section applies to this Part and Parts XIII, XIV and XV.

(2) Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.

(2) If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the tax administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.

(5) If

(2) Where the administrator makes a determination under subsection (1), the administrator shall give a Notice of Tax Assessment to the person stating the reasons the person was not entitled to the refund, or was entitled only to a refund in a lesser amount, and the amount of taxes payable, including interest and penalties where section 39 applies.

(b) the term of which does not exceed thirty (30) years, and

(c) where the lessor and the transferee deal with each other at arm's-length,

Tsleil-Waututh Nation Property Transfer Tax Law, 2021

- (4) If an assessed value is not available, the administrator may
- (a) determine the VSI using the best available data, which may include assessed values or appraisal data of comparable properties; or
 - (b) require the transferee to provide an appraisal of the VSI at the transferee's cost.
- (5) If the administrator determines the VSI under paragraph (4)(a), the transferee may, within ten (10) days after the administrator advised the transferee of the VSI, elect to provide an appraisal of the VSI to the administrator at the transferee's cost and within an additional twenty-one (21) days or such additional time frame as agreed to by the administrator.

- (3) Subject to subsection (5), where the term of the lease modification agreement is one hundred (100) years or less, its fair market value is the amount determined in accordance with the following formula:

where

LSC = any lump sum consideration paid by the transferee for the lease modification, including for any improvements on the leasehold interest;

ARP = the annual rent payment to be made during the last year for which rents are fixed pursuant to the lease as extended by the lease modification agreement; and

PVF = the present value factor set out in Column 2 of Table 2 that is opposite the number of years in Column 1 that corresponds to the number of years applicable under paragraph (1)(b).

WHEREAS:

A. Pursuant to paragraph 5(1)(a.1) of the First Nations Fiscal Management Act, the council of a first nation may make laws respecting the charging of fees for the provision of services or the use of facilities on reserve lands, or for a regulatory process, permit, licence or other authorization, in relation to water, sewer, waste management, animal control, recreation and transportation, as well as any other similar services;

For the water and sewer services provided by the Town pursuant to the servicing agreement, Ts'uubaa-asatx will charge and collect fees from those residents that are the same as the fees set by the Town for those services for "Outside users" from time to time, plus 10% to cover, in part, Ts'uubaa-asatx's related expenses;

D. The fees established in this Law reflect the projected cost of providing the water and sewer services and are supported by a report setting out the projected cost of such services, how the cost of the services were determined, and the proportion of the total costs of the water and sewer services that Ts'uubaa-asatx will recover through the fees set out in this Law; and

(3) A holder of an interest in reserve lands receiving the service must pay all fees levied in accordance with this Law.

PART V

INVOICING AND PAYMENT

Invoicing and Payment

11.(1) The tax administrator must include the fee levied under section 10 in the tax notice for the interest in reserve lands given under the Taxation Law.

(2) Where the fee is included in a tax notice, the tax administrator must

(a) note on the tax roll that the fee is included in the tax notice for that interest; and

(b) show the fee separately from the taxes on the tax notice and indicate that the fee is levied for the service.

(3) Where the fee is included in a tax notice,

(a) the mailing of the tax notice constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the fee; and

(b) the fee is due and payable on the same date as the property taxes for the interest, unless a different due date is set out in the tax notice.

Payment of Fees

12.(1) All fees must be paid at the office of Ts'uubaa-asatx during normal business hours by cheque, cash or electronic payment.

(2) Payment of fees made by cheque must be made payable to Ts'uubaa-asatx.

(3) Fees paid by electronic payment must be paid as directed by the tax administrator.

(4) The tax administrator must apply payments of fees first against any unpaid fees from previous billing periods, including interest and penalties, and then to current amounts due.

Adjustments to Fees

13.(1) The tax administrator must adjust a fee imposed under this Law as follows:

- (a) where the service is disconnected or turned off partway through a billing period, the invoice will include the time period to the end of the last month in which the service was provided;
- (b) where the service is connected partway through a billing period, the invoice will include the time period beginning on the first day of the month in which the connection was made;
- (c) where two (2) or more interests in reserve lands receiving the service are consolidated during a billing period, the consolidated interest will receive a single invoice effective on the invoice for the subsequent billing period;
- (d) where an interest receiving the service is subdivided during a billing period, each new interest will be invoiced separately effective on the invoice for the subsequent billing period.

(2) For clarity,

- (a) there will be no adjustments to fees where the service is temporarily shut off for maintenance, emergencies or for any other reason; and
- (b) fees that are invoiced before an interest is subdivided or consolidated will not be adjusted.

Refund of Fees

14.(1) Where a person has

- (a) paid a fee in circumstances where a fee was not payable, or
- (b) made an overpayment of a fee,

the tax administrator must refund to that person the fee or any excess fee paid by that person, as applicable, including interest calculated in accordance with subsection (2).

(2) The tax administrator must calculate interest payable on a refund given under subsection (1) as follows:

- (a) interest accrues from the date that the fee was originally paid to Ts'uubaa-asatx;
- (b) the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1 in every year is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to Ts'uubaa-asatx on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;
- (c) interest will not be compounded; and
- (d) interest stops running on the earliest of the day payment of the money owed is mailed, delivered or actually received by the person to whom it is owed.

PART VI

PENALTIES, INTEREST AND ENFORCEMENT

Penalties and Interest

15. If all or part of a fee remains unpaid after it is due,

- (a) a one-time penalty of ten percent (10%) of the unpaid portion of the fee will be added to the unpaid fee on the day after it was due, and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the fee; and
- (b) the unpaid portion of the fee accrues interest at fifteen percent (15%) per year, starting from the day after it was due until paid or recovered.

Enforcement

16.(1) Fees charged under this Law, together with any applicable interest and penalties, are a debt owed to Ts'uubaa-asatx that is recoverable by Ts'uubaa-asatx in a court of competent jurisdiction, in a proceeding before the civil resolution tribunal, or in any manner permitted by law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.

(2) A copy of an invoice showing the fees payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the tax administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the fees.

(3) Fees overdue and remaining unpaid on December 31 in each year may be collected in the same manner and with the same enforcement remedies as taxes levied under the Taxation Law, and the tax administrator may enter the unpaid amounts on the tax roll for that interest in reserve lands under the Taxation Law as unpaid taxes.

Discontinuance of Services

17.(1) Subject to this section, Ts'uubaa-asatx may discontinue a service to an interest in reserve land if any part of a fee remains unpaid more than ninety (90) days after the fee is due.

(2) At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing a service, the tax administrator shall deliver to the holder, by personal delivery or registered mail, a Notice of Discontinuance of Service.

(3) Personal delivery of the Notice of Discontinuance of Service is made

(a) in the case of an individual, by leaving the notice with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age staying at that individual's dwelling on reserve;

(b) in the case of a corporation, by leaving the notice with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the office of that corporation, or with an officer or director of the corporation or with an individual apparently authorized to accept delivery at the corporation's registered and records office.

(4) A Notice of Discontinuance of Service is considered to have been delivered

(a) if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and

(b) if sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.

(5) If all or any portion of the fee remains unpaid more than thirty (30) days after the delivery of the Notice of Discontinuance of Services under subsection (2), Ts'uubaa-asatx may disconnect services to the interest in reserve lands.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), Ts'uuba-asatx shall not discontinue water service to an interest in reserve lands that is a residential dwelling.

PART VII COMPLAINTS

Complaints to Tax Administrator

18.(1) A holder of an interest in reserve lands may, within fourteen (14) days of receipt of an invoice under this Law, make a complaint respecting a fee on the basis that the holder has paid a fee when a fee was not payable, or has made an overpayment of a fee.

(2) A complaint must

(a) be made in the form set out in Schedule III;

(b) be delivered to the tax administrator; and

(c) include any reasons in support of the complaint.

(3) Within fourteen (14) days after receipt of a complaint, the tax administrator must review the matter and attempt to resolve the complaint directly with the holder.

(4) If the tax administrator determines that the holder has paid a fee when a fee was not payable, or has made an overpayment of a fee, as the case may be, the tax administrator must advise the holder of the determination and mail an amended invoice to the holder.

(5) If the tax administrator determines that the holder has not paid a fee when a fee was not payable, or has not made an overpayment of a fee, as the case may be, the tax administrator must notify the holder of this determination and the reasons for the determination.
