

ALDERVILLE BAND OF INDIANS

By-Law No. 3

Being a by-law respecting the construction of new dwellings on our Indian Reserve.

Whereas paragraphs (h) and (r) of Section 81 of the Indian Act empower the Council of an Indian Band to make by-laws respecting the regulation of construction of buildings and the imposition of a fine for violation of any by-law made under that section;

And WHEREAS it is deemed necessary to protect reserve property holders by establishing a minimum size for any dwelling constructed from the date this by-law comes into effect;

1. Now THEREFORE the Council of the Alderville Band of Indians enacts as a by-law thereof the following;
the minimum size of any new dwelling must be at least 600 sq. ft. except at Vimy Ridge where cottages must be at least 400 sq. ft. and the by-law is to include everyone including band members and lessees.
2. Any person who violates this by-law shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty days, or both fine and imprisonment.

Approved and passed at a duly convened meeting of the Council this Thirteenth day of September, 1973.
