ADMINISTRATION

3. Tax Administrator

- 3.1. Council must, by resolution, appoint a Tax Administrator to administer this Law on the terms and conditions set out in the resolution.
- 3.2. The Tax Administrator must fulfill the responsibilities given to the Tax Administrator under this Law and the Assessment Law.
- 3.3. The Tax Administrator may, with the consent of Anishinaabeg of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation Financial Management Board, assign the performance of any duties of the Tax Administrator to any officer, Employee, contractor or agent of the First Nation.
- 3.4. The Tax Administrator’s responsibilities include
 - 3.4.1. The collection of taxes and the enforcement of payment under this Law; and
 - 3.4.2. The day to day management of the First Nation’s local revenue account.

4. Authorization of First Nations Financial Management Board

- 4.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, if the First Nations Financial Management Board gives notice to Council pursuant to the Act that third-party management of the revenues raised under this Law is required, Council authorizes the First Nation Financial Management Board to act as agent of the First Nation to fulfill any of the powers and obligations of the Council under this Law and the Act.

PART IV

LIABILITY FOR TAXATION

5. Application of Law

- 5.1. This Law applies to all interests in land.

6. Tax Liability

- 6.1. All interests in land are subject to taxation under this Law except as provided in Part V.
- 6.2. Taxes levied under this Law are a debt owed to the First Nation, recoverable by the First Nation in any manner provided for in this Law or in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- 6.3. Where an interest in land is not subject to taxation, the liability for taxation of any other interest in the same property is not affected.
- 6.4. Taxes are due and payable under this Law notwithstanding any proceeding initiated or remedy sought by a taxpayer respecting his or her liability to taxation under this law.

6.5. Any person who shares the same interest in taxable property is jointly and severally liable to the First Nation for all taxes imposed on that taxable property under this Law during the taxation year and for all unpaid taxes imposed in a previous taxation year, including for clarity, interest, penalties and costs as provided in this Law.

7. Tax Refunds

7.1. Where

7.1.1. Where a person is taxed in excess of the proper amount in a taxation year, the Tax Administrator must refund to that person any excess taxes paid by that person.

7.1.2. Where a person is entitled to a refund of taxes, Council may direct the Tax Administrator to refund the amount in whole or in part by applying it as a credit on account of taxes or other unpaid amounts that are due or accruing due to the First Nation in respect of taxable property held by that person.

7.1.3. Where a person is entitled to be refunded an amount of taxes paid under this Law, the Tax Administrator must pay the person interest as follows:

7.1.3.1. interest accrues from the date that the taxes were originally paid to the First Nation;

7.1.3.2. the interest rate during each successive three (3) month period beginning on April 1, July 1, October 1 and January 1 in every year, is two percent (2%) below the prime lending rate of the principal banker to the First Nation on the 15th day of the month immediately preceding that three (3) month period;

7.1.3.3. interest will not be compounded; and

7.1.3.4. Interest stops running on the day payment of the money owed is delivered or mailed to the person to whom it is owed, or is actually paid.

PART V

EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION

8. Exemptions

8.1. the following interests in land are exempt from taxation under this Law to the extent indicated:

8.1.1. subject to subsection (8.5), any interest in land held or occupied by a member of the First Nation;

8.1.2. subject to subsection (8.5), any interest in land held or occupied by the First Nation or a First Nation Corporation;

8.1.3. any interest in land that is used as a cemetery or a burial site so long as the land is actually being used for the interment or the scattering of human remains or any ancillary purpose and, subject to paragraph (8.1.5), not including any portion of the land used for any other purpose;

8.1.4. any interest in land that is used for bereavement related activities and that is part of a cemetery, if the cemetery is owned by a religious organization;

8.1.5. any interest in land on which is located a crematorium and that is part of a cemetery, if the crematorium is held by a religious organization;

8.1.6. an interest in land that is held by a church or religious organization or leased to it by another church or religious organization and that is

8.1.6.1. a place of worship and the land used in connection with it,

8.1.6.2. a churchyard,

- 8.1.6.3. a burying ground so long as the land is actually being used for the interment of the dead or any ancillary purpose, and not including any portion of the land used for any other purpose, or
- 8.1.6.4. fifty percent (50%) of the assessment of the principal residence and land used in connection with it of the member of the clergy who officiates at the place of worship referred to in subparagraph 8.1.6.1 so long as the residence is located at the site of the place of worship;
- 8.2. any interest in land held, used and occupied solely by a university, college, community college or school;
- 8.3. any interest in land held, used and occupied solely by a non-profit philanthropic, religious or educational seminary of learning or any interest in land leased and occupied by any of them if the interest in land would be exempt from taxation if it was occupied by the holder, provided that this exemption applies only to buildings and up to fifty (50) acres of land; and
- 8.4. Any interest in land of every public library and other public institution, literary or scientific, and of every agricultural or horticultural society or association, to the extent of the actual occupation of the property for the purposes of the institution or society.
- 8.5. The exemptions in paragraphs 8.1.1 and 8.1.2 do not apply to interests in land that are held by a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation, as the case may be, where the interest in land is actually occupied by someone other than a member of the First Nation, the First Nation, or a First Nation Corporation.

PART VI

LEVY OF TAX

9. Tax Levy

- 9.1. On or before May 14 in each taxation year, Council must adopt a law setting the rate of tax to be applied to each property class.
- 9.2. A law setting the rate of tax may establish different tax rates for each property class.
- 9.3. Taxes must be levied by applying the rate of tax against each one hundred dollars ($100) of assessed value of the interest in land.
- 9.4. Subject to the provisions of this section, taxes levied under this Law are deemed to be imposed on January 1 of the taxation year in which the levy is first made.
- 9.5. Notwithstanding subsection (9.3), Council may establish, in its annual law setting the rate of tax, a minimum tax payable in respect of a taxable interest in land, provided that the minimum tax must not exceed three hundred dollars ($300).
- 9.6. A minimum tax established under the authority of subsection (9.5) may be established in respect of one or more property classes.

10. Adjustments to Tax Levy

- 10.1. Where an amendment to the assessment roll has been made under paragraph 18(2) (a) or (b) of the Assessment Law, the Tax Administrator must, upon receiving notice of the amendment, refund or credit to the taxpayer the amount of any overpayment for the current taxation year and any part of the preceding taxation year in accordance with section 7.
- 10.2. Where an amendment to the assessment roll has been made under paragraph 18(2)(c) of the Assessment Law, the Tax Administrator must, upon receiving notice of the amendment

- 10.2.1. refund or credit to the taxpayer the amount of any overpayment in accordance with section 7, or
- 10.2.2. Levy and collect from the taxpayer any additional taxes that have become payable as a result of the change, for the current taxation year and any part of the preceding taxation year.
- 10.3. Where the assessor has made an additional assessment under subsection 19(1) of the Assessment Law, the Tax Administrator must, upon receiving notice of the assessment, levy and collect taxes that would have been payable if the interest in land had been entered on the tax roll as liable to tax for the current taxation year and for any part of either or both of the last two preceding taxation years.
- 10.4. Where the assessor has made an additional assessment under paragraphs 20(1) (a) or (b) of the Assessment Law, the Tax Administrator must, upon receiving notice of the assessment, enter the additional assessment on the tax roll and levy and collect the amount of taxes that would have been levied for the portion of the taxation year left remaining after the use commenced or change occurred.
- 10.5. Where the assessor has changed the classification under subsections 20(2) or (3) of the Assessment Law, the Tax Administrator must, upon receiving notice of the change, enter it on the tax roll and levy and collect the amount of taxes that would have been levied for the portion of the taxation year left remaining after the change event occurred.

11. Tax Payments

- 11.1. Taxes are due and payable on or before June 30 of the taxation year in which they are levied.
- 11.2. Taxes must be paid at the office of the First Nation during normal business hours, by cheque, money order or cash.
- 11.3. Payment of taxes made by cheque or money order must be made payable to the Anishinaabeg of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation.

PART VII

TAX ROLL AND TAX NOTICE

12. Tax Roll

- 12.1. On or before May 1 in each taxation year, the Tax Administrator must prepare a tax roll for each year based on the last certified assessment roll for the year.
- 12.2. The tax roll must be in paper or electronic form and must contain the following information:
- 12.2.1. a description of the property as it appears on the assessment roll;
 - 12.2.2. the name and address of the holder entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;
 - 12.2.3. the name and address of every person entered on the assessment roll with respect to the property;
 - 12.2.4. the assessed value of the land as it appears in the assessment roll, exclusive of exemptions, if any;
 - 12.2.5. the amount of taxes levied on the property in the current taxation year under this Law;
 - 12.2.6. the amount of any unpaid taxes from previous taxation years; and
- 12.3. If parts of the property are in two or more property classes, the matters set out in paragraphs 12.2.5 through 12.2.6 for each part.

13. Annual Tax Notices

- 13.1. On or before April 30 in each taxation year, the Tax Administrator must mail a Tax Notice to each of the following people, at least thirty (30) days before any taxes shown on the Tax Notice are due:

- 13.1.1. Each holder of taxable property under this Law, and
- 13.1.2. Each person whose name appears on the tax roll in respect of the property; to the address of the person as shown on the tax roll.

13.2. The Tax Administrator must enter on the assessment roll or the tax roll the date of mailing a Tax Notice and this record is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof that the Tax Notice was sent on that date.

13.3. The mailing of the Tax Notice by the Tax Administrator constitutes a statement of and demand for payment of the taxes.

13.4. If a number of properties are assessed in the name of the same holder, any number of those properties may be included in one Tax Notice.

13.5. Where the holder of a charge on taxable property gives notice to the assessor of the charge under the Assessment Law and the assessor enters the holder's name on the assessment roll, the Tax Administrator must mail a copy of all Tax Notices issued in respect of the property to the holder of the charge during the duration of the charge.

13.6. No defect, error or omission in the form or substance of a Tax Notice invalidates any proceedings for the recovery of the taxes.

14. Amendments to Tax Roll and Tax Notice

14.1. Where the assessment roll has been amended in accordance with the Assessment Law, or where a supplementary assessment roll is issued in accordance with the Assessment Law, the Tax Administrator must amend the tax roll or create a supplementary tax roll, as necessary, and mail an amended Tax Notice to every person affected by the amendment.

14.2. The duties imposed on the Tax Administrator with respect to the tax roll and the provisions of this Law relating to tax rolls, so far as they are applicable, apply to supplementary tax rolls.

14.3. Where an amended Tax Notice indicates a reduction in the amount of taxes owing, the Tax Administrator must forthwith refund any excess taxes that have been paid, in accordance with section 7.

14.4. Where an amended Tax Notice indicates an increase in the amount of taxes owing, the taxes are due and payable on the date of mailing of the amended Tax Notice; however, the taxpayer must be given thirty (30) days to pay those taxes and a penalty and interest must not be added in that period.

15. Subdivision

15.1. If a property is subdivided, by lease or other legal instrument, the Tax Administrator may, upon application by a holder

15.1.1. apportion the unpaid taxes on the interest in land among the properties created by the subdivision

15.1.2. in proportion to their relative value at the time the assessment roll for the year in which the application is made was certified, or

15.1.3. if the Tax Administrator is of the opinion that an apportionment under paragraph (15.1.2) is not appropriate due to special circumstances, in any other manner; and

15.1.4. Direct what proportion of any part payment of taxes on the interest in land is to be applied to each of the properties created by the subdivision.

15.2. Taxes apportioned to a property under subsection (15.1) are the taxes payable in respect of the property in the year for which they are apportioned.

15.3. The assessor must provide the Tax Administrator with the assessed values necessary to calculate the proportions of taxes referred to in subsection (15.1).

16. Requests for Information

16.1. The Tax Administrator may deliver a Request for Information containing the information set out in Schedule I, to a holder or a person who has disposed of property, and that person must provide to the Tax Administrator, within fourteen (14) days or a longer period as specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Law.

16.2. The Tax Administrator is not bound by the information provided under subsection (16.1).

PART VIII

PAYMENT RECEIPTS AND TAX CERTIFICATES

17. Receipts for Payments

17.1. On receipt of a payment of taxes, the Tax Administrator must issue a receipt to the taxpayer and must enter the receipt number on the tax roll opposite the interest in land for which the taxes are paid.

18. Tax Certificate

18.1. On receipt of a written request and payment of the fee set out in subsection (18.2), the Tax Administrator must issue a Tax Certificate showing whether taxes have been paid in respect of an interest in land and if not, the amount of taxes outstanding.

18.2. The fee for a Tax Certificate is one hundred dollars ($100) for each tax roll folio searched.

PART IX

PENALTIES AND INTEREST

19. Penalty

19.1. If all or part of the taxes remain unpaid after the date that such taxes are due under subsection 11.1, a penalty of 10% percent (10 %) of the portion that remains unpaid will be added to the amount of the unpaid taxes and the amount so added is, for all purposes, deemed to be part of the taxes.

20. Interest

20.1. If all or any portion of such taxes remains unpaid after the date that taxes are due under subsection 11.1, an interest charge of one and one quarter percent (1.25%) will be applied on the first day of the following month, and on the first day of each month thereafter, to a maximum interest charge of fifteen percent (15%) per year.

21. Application of Payments

21.1. Payments for taxes must be credited by the Tax Administrator first, to taxes, including interest, from previous taxation years, second, to a penalty added in the current taxation year, and third, to unpaid taxes for the current taxation year.

PART X

REVENUES AND EXPENDITURES

22. Revenues and Expenditures

- 22.1. All revenues raised under this Law must be placed into a local revenue account, separate from other moneys of the First Nation.
- 22.2. Revenues raised include
 - 22.2.1. taxes, including for clarity, interest, penalties and costs, as set out in this Law; and
 - 22.2.2. Payments-in-lieu of taxes.
- 22.3. An expenditure of revenue raised under this Law must be made under the authority of an expenditure law.

23. Reserve Funds

- 23.1. Reserve funds established by Council must
 - 23.1.1. be established in an expenditure law; and
 - 23.1.2. Comply with this section.
- 23.2. Except as provided in this section, money in a reserve fund must be deposited in a separate account and the money and interest earned on it must be used only for the purpose for which the reserve fund was established.
- 23.3. For capital purpose reserve funds, Council may under an expenditure law,
 - 23.3.1. transfer moneys in a reserve fund to another reserve fund or account only where all projects for which the reserve fund was established have been completed; and
 - 23.3.2. by resolution, borrow money from a reserve fund where not immediately required, on condition that the First Nation repay the amount borrowed plus interest on that amount at a rate that is at or above the prime lending rate set from time to time by the principal banker to the First Nation, no later than the time when the money is needed for the purposes of that reserve fund.
- 23.4. As an exception to paragraph 23.3.2, where the FMB has
 - 23.4.1. Assumed third party management of the First Nation's local revenue account, and
 - 23.4.2. Determined that moneys must be borrowed from a reserve fund to meet the financial obligations of the First Nation,The FMB may, acting in the place of Council, borrow moneys from a reserve fund by expenditure law.
- 23.5. Council must authorize all payments into a reserve fund and all expenditures from a reserve fund in an expenditure law.
- 23.6. Where moneys in a reserve fund are not immediately required, the Tax Administrator must invest those moneys in one or more of the following:
 - 23.6.1. securities of Canada or of a province;
 - 23.6.2. securities guaranteed for principal and interest by Canada or by a province;
 - 23.6.3. securities of a municipal finance authority or the First Nations Finance Authority;
 - 23.6.4. investments guaranteed by a bank, trust company or credit union; or
 - 23.6.5. Deposits in a bank or trust company in Canada or non-equity or membership shares in a credit union.

COLLECTION AND ENFORCEMENT

24. Recovery of Unpaid Taxes

- 24.1. The liability referred to in subsection (6.2) is a debt recoverable by the First Nation in a court of competent jurisdiction and may be recovered by any other method authorized in this Law and, unless otherwise provided, the use of one method does not prevent seeking recovery by one or more other methods.
- 24.2. A copy of the Tax Notice that refers to the taxes payable by a person, certified as a true copy by the Tax Administrator, is evidence of that person's debt for the taxes.
- 24.3. Where the Tax Administrator has reasonable grounds to believe that a debtor intends to remove his or her personal property from the reserve, or intends to dismantle or remove his or her improvements on the reserve, or take any other actions that may prevent or impede the collection of unpaid taxes owing under this Law, the Tax Administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for a remedy, notwithstanding that the time for payment of taxes has not yet expired.
- 24.4. Before commencing enforcement proceedings under Parts XII, XIII and XIV, the Tax Administrator must request authorization from Council by resolution.

25. Tax Arrears Certificate

- 25.1. Before taking any enforcement measures or commencing any enforcement proceedings under Parts XII, XIII or XIV and subject to subsection (25.2), the Tax Administrator must issue a Tax Arrears Certificate and deliver it to every person named on the tax roll in respect of that property.
- 25.2. A Tax Arrears Certificate must not be issued for at least six (6) months after the day on which the taxes became due.

26. Creation of Lien

- 26.1. Unpaid taxes are a lien on the interest in land to which they pertain that attaches to the interest in land and binds subsequent holders of the interest in land.
- 26.2. The Tax Administrator must maintain a list of all liens created under this Law.
- 26.3. A lien listed under subsection (26.2) has priority over any unregistered or registered charge, claim, privilege, and lien or security interest in respect of the interest in land.
- 26.4. The Tax Administrator may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction to protect or enforce a lien under subsection (26.1) where the Tax Administrator determines such action is necessary or advisable.
- 26.5. On receiving payment in full of the taxes owing in respect of which a lien was created, the Tax Administrator must register a discharge of the lien without delay.
- 26.6. Discharge of a lien by the Tax Administrator is evidence of payment of the taxes with respect to the interest in land.
- 26.7. A lien is not lost or impaired by reason of any technical error or omission in its creation or recording in the list of liens.

27. Delivery of Documents in Enforcement Proceedings

- 27.1. This section applies to this Part and Parts XII, XIII and XIV.
- 27.2. Delivery of a document may be made personally or by sending it by registered mail.
- 27.3. Personal delivery of a document is made

- 27.3.1. in the case of an individual, by leaving the document with that individual or with an individual at least eighteen (18) years of age residing at that individual's place of residence;
- 27.3.2. in the case of a First Nation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the main administrative office of the First Nation, or with the First Nation's legal counsel; and
- 27.3.3. in the case of a corporation, by leaving the document with the individual apparently in charge, at the time of delivery, of the head office or one of its branch offices, or with an officer or director of the corporation or the corporation's legal counsel.
- 27.4. A document is considered to have been delivered
 - 27.4.1. if delivered personally, on the day that personal delivery is made; and
 - 27.4.2. If sent by registered mail, on the fifth day after it is mailed.
- 27.5. Copies of notices must be delivered
 - 27.5.1. where the notice is in respect of taxable property, to all persons named on the tax roll in respect of that taxable property; and
 - 27.5.2. Where the notice is in respect of personal property, to all holders of security interests in the personal property registered under the laws of the Province.

PART XII

SEIZURE AND SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

28. Seizure and Sale of Personal Property

- 28.1. Where taxes remain unpaid more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued to a debtor, the Tax Administrator may recover the amount of unpaid taxes, with costs, by seizure and sale of personal property of the debtor that is located on the reserve.
- 28.2. As a limitation on subsection (28.1), personal property of a debtor that would be exempt from seizure under a writ of execution issued by a superior court in the Province is exempt from seizure under this Law.
- 28.3. The costs payable by the debtor under this section are set out in Schedule III.

29. Notice of Seizure and Sale

- 29.1. Before proceeding under subsection 28.1, the Tax Administrator must deliver to the debtor a Notice of Seizure and Sale.
- 29.2. If the taxes remain unpaid more than seven (7) days after delivery of a Notice of Seizure and Sale, the Tax Administrator may request a sheriff, bailiff or by-law enforcement officer to seize any personal property described in the Notice of Seizure and Sale that is in the possession of the debtor and is located on the reserve.
- 29.3. The person who seizes personal property must deliver to the debtor a receipt for the personal property seized.

30. Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property

- 30.1. The Tax Administrator must publish a Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property in two (2) consecutive issues of the local newspaper with the largest circulation.
- 30.2. The first publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property must not occur until at least sixty (60) days after the personal property was seized.

31. Conduct of Sale

- 31.1. A sale of personal property must be conducted by public auction.
- 31.2. Subject to subsection (31.4), at any time after the second publication of the Notice of Sale of Seized

Personal Property, the seized property may be sold by auction.

- 31.3. The Tax Administrator must conduct the public auction at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of Seized Personal Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (30.1).
- 31.4. If at any time before the seized property is sold a challenge to the seizure is made to a court of competent jurisdiction, the sale must be postponed until after the court rules on the challenge.

32. Registered Security Interests

- 32.1. The application of this Part to the seizure and sale of personal property subject to a registered security interest is subject to any laws of the Province regarding the seizure and sale of such property.

33. Proceeds of Sale

- 33.1. The proceeds from the sale of seized personal property must be paid to any holders of registered security interests in the property and to the First Nation in order of their priority under the laws applicable in the Province, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.
- 33.2. If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the Tax Administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the Tax Administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

PART XIII

SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

34. Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property

- 34.1. Where taxes remain unpaid more than nine (9) months after a Tax Arrears Certificate is issued, the Tax Administrator may levy the amount of unpaid taxes by way of the seizure and assignment of the taxable property.

- 34.2. Before proceeding under subsection (34.1), the Tax Administrator must serve a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property on the debtor and deliver a copy to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property.

- 34.3. Not less than six (6) months after a Notice of Seizure and Assignment of Taxable Property is delivered to the debtor, the Tax Administrator may sell the right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender or auction.

- 34.4. Council must, by resolution, prescribe the method of public tender or auction, including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer.

35. Upset Price

- 35.1. The Tax Administrator must set an upset price for the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property that is not less than the total amount of the taxes payable on the taxable property, calculated to the end of the redemption period set out in subsection 39.1, plus five percent (5%) of that total.

35.2. The upset price is the lowest price for which the taxable property may be sold.

36. Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property

36.1. A Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property must be

36.1.1. published in the local newspaper with the largest circulation at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the public tender or auction; and

36.1.2. Posted in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days before the date of the public tender or auction.

36.2. The Tax Administrator must conduct a public auction or tender at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn the public tender or auction, in which case a further notice must be published in the manner set out in subsection (36.1).

36.3. If no bid is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation is deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.

37. Notice to Minister

37.1. The Tax Administrator must, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property made under this Law.

38. Subsisting Rights

38.1. When taxable property is sold by public tender or auction, all rights in it held by the holder of the taxable property or a holder of a charge immediately cease to exist, except as follows:

38.1.1. the taxable property is subject to redemption as provided in subsection 39.1;

38.1.2. the right to possession of the taxable property is not affected during the time allowed for redemption, subject, however, to

38.1.2.1. impeachment for waste, and

38.1.2.2. the right of the highest bidder to enter on the taxable property to maintain it in a proper condition and to prevent waste;

38.1.2.3. an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land subsists; and

38.1.2.4. During the period allowed for redemption, an action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction to have the sale of the right to an assignment of the taxable property set aside and declared invalid.

39. Redemption Period

39.1. At any time within three (3) months after the holding of a public tender or auction in respect of taxable property, the debtor may redeem the taxable property by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%).

39.2. On redemption of the taxable property under subsection 39.1,

39.2.1. if the right to an assignment was sold to a bidder, the First Nation must, without delay, repay to that bidder the amount of the bid; and 39.2.2. The Tax Administrator must notify the Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs in writing of the redemption.

39.3. No assignment of taxable property must be made until the end of the redemption period provided for in subsection (39.1).

39.4. Subject to a redemption under subsection (39.2), at the end of the redemption period, the First Nation must assign the taxable property to the highest bidder in the public tender or auction, or to itself as the deemed purchaser in accordance with subsection 36(3).

40. Assignment of Taxable Property

40.1. Taxable property must not be assigned to any person or entity that would not have been entitled under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act, as the case may be, to obtain the interest or right constituting the taxable property.

40.2. The Tax Administrator must register an assignment of any taxable property assigned in accordance with this Law in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.

40.3. An assignment under subsection (39.4) operates

40.3.1. as a transfer of the taxable property to the bidder from the debtor, without an attestation or proof of execution; and

40.3.2. to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered under subsection (40.2), except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.

40.4. Upon assignment under subsection 40(2) does not impose an obligation on the First Nation to provide vacant possession.

40.5. Upon assignment under subsection 40(2), any remaining debt of the debtor with respect to the taxable property is extinguished.

41. Proceeds of Sale

41.1. at the end of the redemption period, the proceeds from the sale of a right to assignment of taxable property must be paid

41.1.1. First, to the First Nation, and

41.1.2. Second, to any other holders of registered interests in the property in order of their priority at law, and any remaining proceeds must be paid to the debtor.

41.2. If claim to the surplus is made by another person and such claim is contested, or if the Tax Administrator is uncertain who is entitled to such surplus, the Tax Administrator must retain such money until the rights of the parties have been determined.

42. Resale by First Nation

42.1. If the right to assignment of taxable property is purchased by the First Nation under subsection 36(3), the Tax Administrator may, during the redemption period, sell the assignment of the taxable property to any person for not less than the upset price and the purchaser is thereafter considered the bidder under this Part.

- 42.2. A sale under subsection (42.1) does not affect the period for or the right of redemption by the debtor as provided in this Law.

PART XIV

DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICES

43. Discontinuance of Services

- 43.1. Subject to this section, the First Nation may discontinue any service it provides to the taxable property of a debtor if
- 43.1.1. Revenues from this Law or any property taxation law enacted by the First Nation are used to provide that service to taxpayers; and
 - 43.1.2. Taxes remain unpaid by a debtor more than thirty (30) days after a Tax Arrears Certificate was delivered to the debtor.
- 43.2. At least thirty (30) days before discontinuing any service, the Tax Administrator must deliver to the debtor and to any locatee with an interest in the taxable property a Notice of Discontinuance of Services.
- 43.3. The First Nation must not discontinue
- 43.3.1. Fire protection or police services to the taxable property of a debtor;
 - 43.3.2. Water or garbage collection services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling; or
 - 43.3.3. Electrical or natural gas services to taxable property that is a residential dwelling during the period from November 1 in any year to March 31 in the following year.

PART XV

GENERAL PROVISIONS

44. Disclosure of Information

- 44.1. The Tax Administrator or any other person who has custody or control of information or records obtained or created under this Law must not disclose the information or records except
- 44.1.1. In the course of administering this Law or performing functions under it;
 - 44.1.2. In proceedings before the Assessment Review Board, a court of law or pursuant to a court order;
- or
- 44.1.3. In accordance with subsection (44.2).
- 44.2. The Tax Administrator may disclose to the agent of a holder confidential information relating to the property if the disclosure has been authorized in writing by the holder.
- 44.3. An agent must not use information disclosed under subsection (44.2) except for the purposes authorized by the holder in writing referred to in that subsection.

45. Disclosure for Research Purposes

- 45.1. Notwithstanding section 44, Council may disclose information and records to a third party for research purposes, including statistical research, provided
- 45.1.1. The information and records do not contain information in an individually identifiable form or business information in an identifiable form; or 45.1.2. Where the research cannot reasonably be accomplished unless the information is provided in an identifiable form, the third party has signed an agreement with Council to comply with Council's requirements respecting the use, confidentiality and security of the information.

46. Validity

46.1. Nothing under this Law must be rendered void or invalid, nor must the liability of any person to pay tax or any other amount under this Law be affected by

46.1.1. An error or omission in a valuation or a valuation based solely on information in the hands of an assessor or the Tax Administrator;

46.1.2. An error or omission in a tax roll, Tax Notice, or any notice given under this Law; or 46.1.3. A failure of the First Nation, Tax Administrator or the assessor to do something within the required time.

47. Limitation on Proceedings

47.1. No person may commence an action or proceeding for the return of money paid to the First Nation, whether under protest or otherwise, on account of a demand, whether valid or invalid, for taxes or any other amount paid under this Law, after the expiration of six (6) months from the making of the payment.

47.2. If a person fails to start an action or proceeding within the time limit described in this section, then money paid to the First Nation must be deemed to have been voluntarily paid.

48. Notices

48.1. where in this Law a notice is required to be given by mail or where the method of giving the notice is not otherwise specified, it must be given

48.1.1. By mail to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll;

48.1.2. Where the recipient's address is unknown, by posting a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the recipient's property; or 48.1.3. By personal delivery or courier to the recipient or to the recipient's ordinary mailing address or the address for the recipient shown on the tax roll.

48.2. Except where otherwise provided in this Law

48.2.1. A notice given by mail is deemed received on the fifth day after it is posted;

48.2.2. A notice posted on property is deemed received on the second day after it is posted; and 48.2.3. A notice given by personal delivery is deemed received upon delivery.

49. Interpretation

49.1. The provisions of this Law are severable, and where any provision of this Law is for any reason held to be invalid by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid portion must be severed from the remainder of this Law and the decision that it is invalid must not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Law.

49.2. Where a provision in this Law is expressed in the present tense, the provision applies to the circumstances as they arise.

49.3. Words in this Law that are in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular.

- 49.4. This Law must be construed as being remedial and must be given such fair, large and liberal construction and interpretation as best ensures the attainment of its objectives.
- 49.5. Reference in this Law to an enactment is a reference to the enactment as it exists from time to time and includes any regulations made under the enactment.
- 49.6. Headings form no part of the enactment and must be construed as being inserted for convenience of reference only.

50. Repeal

- 50.1. The Anishinaabeg of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation By-Law 14-4, as amended, is hereby repealed in its entirety.

51. Force and effect

- 51.1. This Law comes into force and effect on the day after it is approved by the First Nations Tax Commission.

THIS LAW IS HEREBY DULY ENACTED by Council on the 18th day of January, 2016, at Kettle & Stony Point First Nation, in the Province of Ontario.

Tax Administrator for the Anishinaabeg of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation

Dated: _____, 20__.

SCHEDULE VIII

NOTICE OF SEIZURE AND ASSIGNMENT OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

TO: _____
(The “debtor”)

ADDRESS: _____

DESCRIPTION OF INTEREST IN LAND: _____
(The “taxable property”)

TAKE NOTICE that taxes, penalties, and interest in the amount of _____ dollars ($_____) remain unpaid and are due and owing in respect of the taxable property.

AND TAKE NOTICE that a Tax Arrears Certificate dated _____ was delivered to you in respect of these unpaid taxes.

AND TAKE NOTICE that failure to pay the full amount of the unpaid tax debt within six (6) months after service of this Notice may result in the Tax Administrator, pursuant to subsection 34.3 of the Anishinaabeg of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2015, seizing and selling a right to an assignment of the taxable property by public tender [auction] as follows:

1. The public tender [auction], including the conditions that are attached to the acceptance of an offer, shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures prescribed by the Council of the Anishinaabeg of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation, a copy of which may be obtained from the Tax Administrator.
2. The Tax Administrator will
 - a. publish a Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in the _____ newspaper at least once in each of the four (4) weeks preceding the date of the sale; and
 - b. Post the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property in a prominent place on the reserve not less than ten (10) days preceding the date of the sale.
3. The Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property will set out the upset price for the right to assignment of the taxable property and any conditions attached to the acceptance of a bid.
4. The upset price will be not less than the total amount of the taxes, interest and penalties payable, calculated to the end of the redemption period, plus five percent (5%) of that total. The upset price is the lowest price for which the right to assignment of the taxable property will be sold.
5. The Tax Administrator will conduct the public tender [auction] at the time and place set out in the Notice of Sale of a Right to Assignment of Taxable Property, unless it is necessary to adjourn in which case a further notice will be published.
6. If at the public tender [auction] there is no bid that is equal to or greater than the upset price, the First Nation will be deemed to have purchased the right to an assignment of the taxable property for the amount of the upset price.
7. The debtor may redeem the right to an assignment of the taxable property after the sale by paying to the First Nation the amount of the upset price plus three percent (3%), any time within three (3) months after the holding of the public tender [auction] in respect of the taxable property (hereinafter referred to as the “redemption period”). Where the right to an assignment is redeemed, the First Nation will, without delay, repay to the bidder the amount of the bid.

8. A sale of a right to an assignment of taxable property by public tender [auction] is not complete, and no assignment of the taxable property will be made, until the expiration of the redemption period. If the right to an assignment of the taxable property is not redeemed within the redemption period, then on the expiration of the redemption period, the First Nation will assign the taxable property to the highest bidder or to itself as the deemed purchaser, as applicable. The taxable property will not be assigned to any person or entity who would not have been capable under the Indian Act or the First Nations Land Management Act of obtaining the interest or right constituting the taxable property.
9. Council of the Anishinaabeg of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation will, without delay, notify the Minister of Indian and Northern Affairs in writing of the sale of a right to an assignment of the taxable property and of any redemption of the right to an assignment of the taxable property.
10. The Tax Administrator will register the assignment of the taxable property in every registry in which the taxable property is registered at the time of the assignment.
11. An assignment of the taxable property operates
 - a. As a transfer to the bidder or the First Nation, as the case may be, from the debtor of the taxable property, without an attestation or proof of execution, and
 - b. to extinguish all the right, title and interest of every previous holder of the taxable property, or those claiming under a previous holder, and all claims, demands, payments, charges, liens, judgments, mortgages and encumbrances of every type, and whether or not registered, subsisting at the time the assignment is registered, except an easement, restrictive covenant, building scheme or right-of-way registered against the interest in land.
12. Upon assignment of the taxable property, the debtor will be required to immediately vacate the taxable property, and any rights or interests held by the debtor in the taxable property, including the improvements, will be transferred in full to the purchaser.
13. The proceeds of sale of the taxable property will be paid first to the First Nation, then to any other holders of registered interests in the taxable property in order of their priority at law. Any moneys in excess of these amounts will be paid to the debtor in accordance with the Anishinaabeg of Kettle and Stony Point First Nation Property Taxation Law, 2015.
