The Council of the Blood Band of Indians at a meeting held the h day of July, 1977, makes the following bylaw pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (r) of Section 81 of the Indian Act: Bylaw No. 9

A bylaw to provide for the disposal of garbage and waste within that portion of the Blood Indian Reserve, in the Province of Alberta, as shown on the Plans hereunto annexed and commonly known and hereafter referred to as the "Standoff, Moses Lake" and Lavern Communities."

- (a) No person shall within the designated communities accumulate or permit to be accumulated upon land in his possession or deposit or accumulate on the land in possession of another person anything which is or may be offensive or injurious to health.
- (b) No person shall, within the designated communities deposit any dead animal, offal, fish, manure, garbage, fruit, vegetables, nightsoil, filth, liquid waste, or anything of a nature which is or may become offensive or prejudicial to health upon or into any highway, street, road alley, lane, lot, ditch, river, stream, wells, or sewer, or onto any of the said land or premises within the reserve and any such deposit shall be deemed a nuisance, provided, however, that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the deposit and proper disposal of any such material into or at a place within the said portion of the reserve approved by the Council for that purpose.
- (c) The Council may arrange for the regular removal of garbage and waste from any premises within the designated communities. Such removal shall be at the expense of the person failing to comply with this bylaw.
- (d) In the spring of each year as soon as the melting of snow permits the person in possession of any premises within the designated communities shall collect all waste matter lying thereon including tin cans, bottles, paper and animal manure.
- (e) All such waste shall be disposed of in such a manner as will prevent any nuisance or offense as the fouling of wells and water supply.
- (f) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this bylaw shall be guilty of an offense and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten dollars or imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven days, or both fine and imprisonment.
