

WABASEEMOONG INDEPENDENT NATIONS KIBHICHITOOTAA MINIKWAYIN and MUCHI MISHKIKIWAN INAAKONIGAYWIN”.

BY-LAW - #01/2024

WHEREAS the Wabaseemoong Independent Nations Chief and Council are the duly elected government of the Wabaseemoong Independent Nations and are elected to ensure the peace, safety and well being of their community members within the former three (3) communities of One-Man Lake, Swan Lake and Whitedog communities, and;

WHEREAS the Wabaseemoong Independent Nations recognize that since time immemorial which is to say “long before contact with European colonists” they have always had an inherent right to be a self-governing nation in accordance with the laws given to them by Kitchi Manito and those laws created by their Anishinaabeg Elders for the safety, health and wellbeing of all their citizens, and;

WHEREAS the Wabaseemoong Independent Nations Chief and Council deem it necessary to exercise their inherent rights under their own laws provided by Kitchi Manito and;

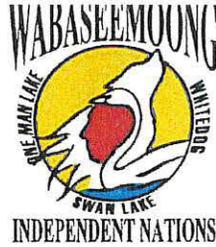

WHEREAS the Band Council of Wabaseemoong Independent Nations deems it necessary to review by-laws previously ratified by their membership and to make amendments to existing by-laws when and where necessary in order for their Wabaseemoong Independent Nation by-laws to be effective and functional documents; and

WHEREAS the Majority of Electors in attendance at a meeting held on July 12, 2023 which was called to discuss a “state of emergency” and address community issues including how uncontrolled entry and sales of alcohol, drugs and substances (lacquer) on the Wabaseemoong Independent Nations communities were creating high instances of family violence, community violence, children in care, suicides, illnesses and death; and

WHEREAS as a result of several community meetings and surveys conducted by Wabaseemoong Independent Nations the electors of the Wabaseemoong Independent Nations have directed the Chief and council to create, implement, repeal and amend where necessary Wabaseemoong Independent Nations community laws and by-laws, including; curfews, housing, financial, band policies and procedures, road safety, animal, and by-laws that reduce the sales and possession of alcohol, drugs and other substances on their community, and;

WHEREAS the Wabaseemoong Independent Nations Chief and Council have identified that alcohol use contributes to increased violence, family violence, neglect of children, child apprehensions, illnesses, diseases and death which makes their community very dangerous and unsafe, and;

WHEREAS section 81(1) subsections (a) to (d), (p) and section 85.1 of the Indian Act empowers the Chief and Council of Wabaseemoong Independent Nations to pass by-laws to provide for the safety, health and welfare of residents, the protection of property and the observance of law and order on reserve, in addition to, matters arising out of or ancillary to the exercise of powers under section 81 and 85.1 of the Indian Act; and

Be it resolved that the Council of Wabaseemoong Independent Nations have determined that it is desirable that their Anishinaabe Nation creates, implements and enforces By-Laws,

“Kibichitootaa Minikwayin and Muchi Mishkikiwan Inakonigaywin” #01/2024
