The Brunswick House Band Housing By-Law

Whereas: Sections 81 (l), (c), (d), (h), (q), and (r) empowers the Band to make certain By-Laws and provides for the violation of the By-Laws.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Council of the Brunswick House Band enacts as a By-Law as follows;

- 1) The Chief and Council shall establish a housing policy for the Band which will determine priorities for housing on reserve.
- 2) The Chief and Council shall, in accordance with the housing policy, decide who has the right to occupy a house on the reserve, and may attach conditions on the right of occupancy.
- 3) The conditions which may be attached to the right of occupancy of a house may include:
 - a) The length of time of occupancy
 - b) Who has the right to occupy the house; and
 - c) Any amount to be paid by the occupant to the Band for the right of occupancy.
- 4) No person shall;
 - a) Disturb the lawful occupancy of a house;
 - b) Threaten the occupants of a house with violence;
 - c) Do any act or say anything calculated to make the lawful occupants of a house give up possession of that house; or
 - d) Destroy or damage any house.
