

FORT WARE INDIAN BAND
BY-LAW NUMBER 2-1986

A BY-LAW TO REPEAL BY-LAW NUMBER 1-1985
BEING AN INTOXICANTS BY-LAW

WHEREAS the Council of the Fort Ware Indian Band did enact By-Law Number 1-1985 on December 9th, 1985, pursuant to section 85.1 of the Indian Act, to protect its residents from the presence of intoxicants on its reserve lands;

AND WHEREAS although this by-law was properly enacted and registered, it was never published in the Canada Gazette, nor was it exempted from publication; and as a result of this, the Band is prevented from obtaining convictions for breaches thereof that occurred since registration of this By-law. It is the opinion of the Band Council of the Fort Ware Indian Band that our By-Law No. 1-1985 is therefore unenforceable;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Fort Ware Indian Band enacts as a by-law thereof the following:

1. By-law number 1-1985 enacted on December 9th, 1985 and being an intoxicants by-law be and the same is hereby repealed.

Approved and passed at a duly convened meeting of the council of the Fort Ware Indian Band held on "November" "24", 1986.

AND THAT this by-law, prior to enactment by the Band Council of the Fort Ware Indian Band, was first assented to by a majority of the electors of the Band who voted at a special meeting of the band held on "November 24", 1986 and called by the council of the band for the purpose of considering this by-law.

Be it known that this by-law shall be known as the "Intoxicants Repealing By-Law" and is consented to by the following members of the band council:
