

S 02/73-416

23 July 73

The Council of the Columbia Lake Band of Indians at a meeting held June 29, 1973 at Columbia Lake Reserve makes the following by-Law pursuant to paragraph (e) section 81 of the Indian Act.

By-Law No. 2

A by-Law to provide for the protection against and prevention of trespass by cattle and other domestic animals on the Columbia Lake Indian Reserve.

1. No person shall permit any livestock and domestic animal to run at large on the Columbia Lake Indian Reserve without the consent of the Columbia Lake Band Council, any such animals will be subject to impoundment.
2. Anyone finding any animal running at large contrary to the Provisions of Section 1 shall deliver them to a place so designated by the Band Council whether the name and address of the owner is known or not.
3. The Band Council will post notice of the impounding of any animal or if the owner is known, will notify the owner in writing within two days of impounding.
4. Before releasing any animal from the pound the owner will be required to pay to the Columbia Lake Band a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) as well as any damage costs and maintenance of One Dollar ($1.00) per day.
5. When an animal has not been redeemed from the pound within twenty days after notice of impoundment has been given the said animal shall be sold.
6. The proceeds of the sale of any such animal shall be paid to the owner after the deduction of the fees and charges owing or if animal has not been claimed, to the credit of the Columbia Lake Band.

Signed: Columbia Lake Band Council
