

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE CHIEF AND COUNCIL OF THE PEIGAN BAND OF INDIANS UNDER SECTION 80 (e) of THE INDIAN ACT ON THE 21st DAY OF November...1951.

1. No person other than a member of the Peigan Band of Indians shall suffer or permit an animal owned by him or reputed to be in his care and possession to roam at large upon and part of the Peigan Indian Reserve #147 and any animal so found at large upon the said Reserve shall be liable to be impounded as hereinafter provided. Any animal means, horses, mules, cattle, sheep, goats, dogs and poultry of every kind.
2. The Superintendent for the time being, or some responsible person appointed by him shall be poundkeeper for the Reserve.
3. The Poundkeeper shall keep a book in which he shall record a description of all animals impounded, with the date of impounding, damage claimed, if any, date redeemed or sold, and disposal of the proceeds.
4. Anyone finding any animal roaming at large on the Reserve in contravention of section 1 hereof may deliver the same to the pound whether the name and address of the owner or reputed owner of such animal be known or not, and for so delivering same shall be entitled to remuneration as follows:
  - (a) For the delivery of each stallion, jack or bull - $5.00
  - (b) For the delivery of each ram, he-goat or boar - $2.00
5. The Poundkeeper shall, within two days after the impounding of any animal, forward a notice of same in the form by law provided, for publication in the official Gazette of the Province of Alberta and shall also advertise the same in two successive issues of the local newspaper (if any) and shall post notice of same in at least three conspicuous places on or near the Reserve. If the owner or person reputed to have charge of the said animal is known, notice of the impounding shall be forwarded by the Poundkeeper to such owner or reputed owner.
6. Sufficient feed and water shall at alltimes be provided for the animals impounded.
7. The owner or reputed owner of an impounded animal may redeemsuch animal by the payment of the fees and damages as provided in section 8 hereof.
8. The following fees and damages shall be recovered by the Poundkeeper together with the remuneration mentioned in section 4 hereof before releasing impounded animal from the pound:
  - (a) For the maintenance of each stallion, jack or bull $2.00 a day
For the maintenance of each ram, he-goat ..... .50 a day
For the maintenance of each horse, mule, ass, head of cattle or swine.....1.00 a day
For the maintenance of each sheep or goat..... .40 a day
  - (b) To the Poundkeeper for notifying the owner of the animal or animals impounded..... 1.00 a day
  - (c) To the Poundkeeper for forwarding notice to the Recorder of Brands at Edmonton..... .25
  - (d) To the Poundkeeper for making out notices and all necessary copies thereof and all services in connection therewith other than those for which a fee is elsewhere expressly provided, for each notice (which shall include all animals impounded at one seizure)..... 1.00
  - (e) To the Poundkeeper for each mile necessarily travelled in the performance of his duties..... .10
  - (f) For selling impounded animals,  $\frac{2\frac{1}{2}}{2}$ % of the amount realized.

(g) For depreciation caused by the animal at large, actual damage assessed.

The remuneration mentioned in section 4 hereof shall be paid to the party delivering the animal to the pound. The fees mentioned in sub-sections (a) to (e) inclusive, of this section 8, shall be retained by the Poundkeeper. The 2½% commission in sub-section (f) of this section 8 shall be paid to the auctioneer, provided that where the Poundkeeper or the Auctioneer is the Superintendent of the Indian Agency, Assistant or other official of the Indian Affairs Branch, the fees to be retained by the Poundkeeper or paid to the Auctioneer, as the case may be, shall be remitted to the Indian Affairs Branch for the credit of the funds of the Peigan Band of Indians. Damages assessed in respect of depreciation caused by the animal impounded shall be paid to the party claiming to have suffered the said damage.

9. In case an animal be not released from the pound within fifteen days after the first publication of notice in the official Gazette as provided for in Section 5 hereof, the said animal shall be sold by public auction after notice of such sale has been posted for not less than eight days in three conspicuous places within reasonable distance of the said pound, and at such sale the Poundkeeper, a Justice of the Peace, or a licensed auctioneer, to be appointed by the Indian Superintendent, shall be the auctioneer, and such sale shall be held at the Pound and shall commence at two of the clock in the afternoon, Standard Time.

10. The proceeds of the sale of any animal sold as provided for in the next preceding section hereof shall be applied as follows:

Firstly in payment of costs and commissions consequent upon such sale.

Secondly in payment of advertising and mileage.

Thirdly in payment of pound and maintenance fees as provided by sub-sections (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) of section 8 hereof.

Fourthly in payment of damages claimed by any person claiming to have suffered less from depreciations committed by said animal, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the owner of the animal sold upon the evidence of ownership satisfactory to the Indian Affairs Branch, provided that application therefore be made to the Indian Superintendent within three months next after the date of said sale. Otherwise the residue shall be credited to the Funds of the Peigan Band of Indians. Provided that if the amount realized at such sale be not sufficient to pay the fees and costs set out in section 8 hereof, the unpaid balance of such fees and costs shall be paid from Band Funds of the said Band.

11. In case the owner of the animal impounded shall dispute the amount of fees and damages claimed in respect of the trespass the matter shall be decided before the nearest Justice of the Peace according to the laws of the Province of Alberta.

12. The singular number shall subtend the plural and the masculine gender shall subtend the feminine throughout these regulations where the context so requires.
